Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski, 2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet s Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet s Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840 1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world s best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet s celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet s version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism s major stylistic shifts Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time Monet s Minutes traces the evolution of Monet s art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself In each chapter Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet s works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to Impressionism Grounded in exceptional research and analyses this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet and a fresh perspective on late nineteenth century art society and modern temporality Aspects of Monet John Rewald, Frances Weitzenhoffer, 1984 Impressionism Anne Distel, Michel Hoog, Charles S. Moffett, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1974 Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light being truer than any other Crises in Continental Philosophy Arleen B. Dallery, Charles E. Scott, 1990-10-02 This book punctuates the moments of crisis in continental thought from the foundational crisis of reason in Husserl's call for a rigorous science of phenomenology to the current crisis of postmodernism and its rejection of Husserl's metanarrative of history and rationality The mediating links between these moments is the centrality of the epochal history of Being the power of cultural and disciplinary practices and the dispersal of meaning in the post Husserlian and post subjective philosophies of Heidegger Foucault Derrida and others Included here are the thoughts of leading scholars who critically discuss Husserl's analysis of the crisis of Western thought and the importance of the concepts of world in Husserl's early writings The authors analyze the deprivileging of philosophy as social critique through the text of Husserl Habermas Foucault and recent feminist theory They examine the end of the epistemological and morally autonomous subject in continental thought Together these thoughts articulate multiple points or moments of crisis without cure or end The Path of Archaic Thinking Kenneth Maly, 1995-03-02 This book demonstrates that the kind of philosophy called Continental thought belongs to America in its own right It reflects the depth originality and revolutionary character of Sallis's re-doing imagination of his twisting imagination free from a metaphysics of presence and of subjectivity The book includes essays by Walter Biemel Peg Birmingham Walter Brogan Fran oise Dastur Jacques Derrida Parvis Emad Eliane Escoubas Bernard Freydsberg Rodolphe Gasch Michel Haar John Llewelyn Kenneth Maly Adriaan Peperzak James Risser and Charles Scott This array of contributors demonstrates the place that Sallis's work has on the forefront of contemporary Continental thought The book concludes with an original piece by John Sallis himself in which he thinks the philosophical sense of wonder in Aristotle Plato Hegel the end of metaphysics and Heidegger
