

Tree

- By Isdiah W Johnson

Oh great being standing tall
I wonder what you see
Your head above the clouds
And eyes across the Earth
I wonder how you're listening
To see and feel ages long past
To stand against the wind
But what if I were to ask you
Just how long it's really been

Was the world a different place
When you were only a foot tall?
Did the years go by in haste
As you ascended above all?

Do the lives of those you see seem fleeting
While you're rooted to the ground?
Does war and strife seem pointless
When eras come around?

What do you view me as
While I'm right here next to you?
Do my words reach upward to your ears
Does my wrinkled skin seem brand new?

If only I could stand so tall
So firm
So stoic and so proud
Then maybe one day you'd be inclined
To share your thoughts aloud
