New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea In Secrecy's Shadow Simon Willmetts, 2016-04-08 During the Second World War hundreds of Hollywood filmmakers under the command of the legendary director John Ford enlisted in the OSS to produce training reconnaissance and propaganda films This wartime bond continued into the post war period when a number of studios produced films advocating the creation of a permanent peacetime successor to the OSS what became the Central Intelligence Agency By the 1960s however Hollywood's increasingly irreverent attitude towards the CIA reflected a growing public anxiety about excessive US government secrecy In Secrecy's Shadow provides the first comprehensive history of the birth and development of Hollywood's relationship with American intelligence It takes an interdisciplinary approach synthesizing literatures and methodologies from diplomatic history film studies and cultural theory and it presents new perspectives on a number of major filmmakers including Darryl F Zanuck Alfred Hitchcock and John Ford Based on research conducted in over 20 archival repositories across the United States and UK Secrecy's Shadow explores the revolution in the relationship between Hollywood and the secret state from unwavering trust and cooperation to extreme scepticism and paranoia and demonstrates the debilitating effects of secrecy upon public trust in government and the stability of national memory
