Social Organization And The Applications Of Anthropology Essays In Honor Of Lauriston Sharp:

Social Organization and the Applications of Anthropology Lauriston Sharp, 1974 Ibss: Anthropology: 1975 International Committee for Social Science, 1978-08-24 First published in 1978 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company American Anthropology in Micronesia Robert Kiste, Mac Marshall, 1999-03-01 This text evaluates how anthropological research in the Trust Territory has affected the Micronesian people the US colonial administration and the discipline of anthropology itself It analyzes the interplay between anthropology and history in particular how American colonialism affected anthropologists use of history and examines the research that has been conducted by American anthropologists in specific topical areas of sociocultural anthropology The text concentrates on disciplinary concerns but also considers the connections between work done in the era of applied anthropology and that completed later when anthropology was pursued mainly for its own sake The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor King, William D. Wilder, 2020-09-10 This is a comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural anthropology of South East Asia It provides an overview of the major theoretical issues and themes which have emerged from the engagement of anthropologists with South East Asian communities a succinct historical survey and analysis of the peoples and cultures of the region Most importantly the volume reveals the vitally important role which the study of the area has occupied in the development of the concepts and methods of anthropology from the perspectives of Edmund Leach to Clifford Geertz Maurice Freedman to Claude Levi Strauss Lauriston Sharp to Melford Spiro Communication, Social Structure and Development in Rural Malaysia William Wilder, 2021-01-07 This is an important innovative analysis of communication and society in Pahang West Malaysia based on fieldwork carried out in Kampung Kuala Bera Dr Wilder is concerned with communication networks of all kinds as found in a long established Malay village including the uses of language small scale kinship and village based networks and higher level systems the district and the nation as a whole Dr Wilder lays particular emphasis on the role of communication in the process of economic development and on administration during a period of rapid and induced social change His study is prefaced by a detailed historical account of Pahang and a thorough sociological analysis of Kampung Kuala Bera The ethnography is meticulously detailed its special contribution includes the first ever publication of a Malay village genealogy a systematic account of birth order names a major feature of the kinship system complete figures on marital breakdowns for the whole village population and an intensive analysis of leadership in its local context This work will be of value to students of Southeast Asian societies rural sociology network studies economic development political education and the mass media in third world countries Anthropology and Politics Joan Vincent, 2022-08-16 In considering how anthropologists have chosen to look at and write about politics Joan Vincent contends that the anthropological study of politics is itself a historical process Intended not only as a representation but also as a reinterpretation her study arises from questioning accepted views and unexamined assumptions This wide ranging cross disciplinary work is a critical review of the anthropological study of politics in the English speaking world from 1879 to the present a counterpoint of text and context that describes for each of three eras both what anthropologists have said about politics and the national and international events that have shaped their interests and concerns It is also an account of how intellectual social and political conditions influenced the discipline by conditioning both anthropological inquiry and the avenues of research supported by universities and governments Finally it is a study of the politics of anthropology itself examining the survival of theses or schools of thought and the influence of certain individuals and departments

Anthropology in Use John Van Willigen, 1980 First Published in 1980 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Under Heaven's Brow Ward Hunt Goodenough, 2002 For the people of Chuuk and for students of religion and Micronesian culture this book pulls together and makes available in English the somewhat scattered published accounts largely in German along with Goodenough's own as yet unpublished information about religious beliefs and ritual practices in pre-Christian Chuuk The materials are presented in a way that seeks to document and illustrate a particular approach a functional one to understanding the kinds of human concerns that give rise to religious behavior Simply to describe traditional beliefs and rituals without the relevant social background information leaves the reader without any feeling for what were the emotional concerns engendered by life in Chuukese society that ritual practices helped people address Ward Goodenough offers a theoretical introduction the necessary background information about Chuuk and the ways in which members of Chuukese society experienced themselves and their fellows the world view and overall set of beliefs providing the intellectual framework within which ritual practices were formulated and understood and the various bodies of ritual practices He concludes the book with a summary that pulls together how the rituals described appear to relate to the emotional concerns that growing up and living in Chuuk tended to create

Militarizing Culture Roberto J. González, 2016-06-16 Militarizing Culture is a rousing critique of the American warfare state by a leading cultural commentator Roberto J. González reveals troubling trends in the post-9/11 era as the military industrial complex infiltrates new arenas of cultural life from economic and educational arenas to family relationships One of the nation's foremost critics of the Human Terrain System program González makes passionate arguments against the engagement of social scientists and the use of anthropological theory and methods in military operations Despite the pervasive presence of militarism and violence in our society González insists that warfare is not an inevitable part of human nature and charts a path toward the decommissioning of culture

The New Shape of Old Island Cultures Francis X. Hezel, 2001-05-01 The years since World War II have brought unprecedented social change to Micronesia Now drawing on more than four decades of experience living and working in the region Francis X Hezel assesses the most striking changes to have swept over the islands in the past fifty years His careful and comprehensive reading of Micronesian anthropology and history allows him to present insights into patterns of change touching the lives of not only Micronesians but people in other parts of the Pacific as well The broad range of topics covered include family structure land gender roles cultural treatment of life events birth marriage death sexuality political authority and demography and migration Hezel argues that the primary engine of social change in Micronesia has been the dramatic shift from subsistence fishing and gardening to salaried employment in a cash economy He makes the case that this fundamental change has fragmented the extended family changed the way land is viewed revolutionized gender roles and paved the way for an ethics of individualism

The Evolution of Techniques Mathieu Charbonneau, 2024-03-19 A novel interdisciplinary exploration of the relative contributions of rigidity and flexibility in the adoption maintenance and evolution of technical traditions Techniques can either be used in rigid stereotypical ways or in flexibly adaptive ways or in some combination of the two The Evolution of Techniques edited by Mathieu Charbonneau addresses the impacts of both flexibility and rigidity on how techniques are used transformed and reconstructed at varying social and temporal scales The multidisciplinary contributors demonstrate the important role of the varied learning contexts and social configurations involved in the transmission use and evolution of techniques They explore the diversity of cognitive behavioral sociocultural and ecological mechanisms that promote and constrain technical flexibility and rigidity proposing a deeper picture of the enablers of and obstacles to technical transmission and change In line with the extended evolutionary synthesis the book proposes a more inclusive and materially grounded conception of technical evolution in terms of promiscuous dynamic and multidirectional causal processes Offering new evidence and novel theoretical perspectives the contributors deploy a diversity of methods including ethnographies field and laboratory experiments cladistics and phylogenetic tree building historiography and philosophical analysis Examples of the wide range of topics covered include field experiments with potters from five cultures stability and change in Paleolithic toolmaking why children lack flexibility when making tools and cultural techniques in nonhuman animals The volume s three thematic sections are Timescales of technical rigidity and flexibility Rigid copying to flexible reconstruction Exogenous factors of technical rigidity and flexibility The volume closes with a discussion by philosopher Kim Sterelny Contributors Rita Astuti Adam Howell Boyette Blandine Bril Josep Call Mathieu Charbonneau Arianna Curioni Nicola Cutting Bert De Munck Gyrgy Gergely Anne Lise Goujon Ildik Kirly Catherine Lara Sbastien Manem Luke McEllin Helena Miton Giulio Ongaro Sarah Pope Caldwell Valentine Roux Manon Schweinfurth Dan Sperber Kim Sterelny Dietrich Stout James W A Strachan Sadie Tenpas

Calling in the Soul Patricia V. Symonds, 2014-09-01 Calling in the Soul Hu Plig is the chant the Hmong use to guide the soul of a newborn baby into its body on the third day after birth Based on extensive original research conducted in the late 1980s in a village in northern Thailand this ethnographic study examines Hmong cosmological beliefs about the cycle of life as expressed in practices surrounding birth marriage and death and considers the gender relationships evident in these practices The Hmong or Miao as they are called in China and Meo in Thailand have lived on the fringes of powerful Southeast Asian states for centuries Their social framework is distinctly patrilineal granting little direct power to women Yet within the limits of that structure Hmong women wield considerable influence in the spiritually critical realms of birth and death Calling in the Soul will be of interest to sociocultural anthropologists medical anthropologists Southeast Asianists and gender specialists Replaces ISBN 9780295800424 Ethnicities and Nations Remo Guidieri, Francesco Pellizzi, Stanley Jeyaraja Tambiah, 1988 National Union Catalog , 1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases Catalogue: Authors Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology.
