Significant trends including the West German social crime novel, women's crime writing, regional crime fiction, historical crime fiction, and the Fernsehkrimi (television crime drama) are also explored, highlighting the genre's distinctive features in German language contexts. This volume includes a map of German-speaking Europe, a chronology of key crime publishing milestones, primary texts, and trends, as well as an annotated bibliography of print and online resources in English and German.

Crime Fiction Migration Christiana Gregoriou, 2017-07-27 Crime narratives form a large and central part of the modern cultural landscape. This book explores the cognitive stylistic processing of prose and audiovisual fictional crime texts. It also examines instances where such narratives find themselves through popular demand, migrating meaning that they cross languages, media formats, and/or cultures. In doing so, Crime Fiction Migration proposes a move from a monomodal to a multimodal approach to the study of crime fiction. Examining original crime fiction works alongside their translations, adaptations, and remakings proves instrumental in understanding how various semiotic modes interact with one another. The book analyses works such as We Need to Talk About Kevin, the Killing trilogy, and the reimaginings of plays such as Shear Madness and films such as Funny Games. Crime fiction is consistently popular, and on the move: witness the spate of detective series exported out of Scandinavia or the ever-popular exporting of these shows from the USA. This multimodal and semiotically aware analysis of global crime narratives expands the discipline and is key reading for students of linguistics, criminology, literature, and film.
