　　Social Psychology Kopano Ratele,Norman Duncan,2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting Social Psychology ,2017 Social Psychology - Identities and Relationships K. Ratele,N. Duncan,2004-05-01 Community Psychology Anthony Naidoo,Jace Pillay,Brett Bowman,2007 Book CD Community Psychology contains a rich diversity of insights and critical debates on the key theoretical analytic teaching learning and action approaches in community psychology The book offers an incisive examination of a range of contextual factors that influence the practice of community psychology in South Africa Social Psychology Stainton Rogers, Wendy,2011-06-01 This is an introductory social psychology textbook that acknowledges two very different approaches being taken to social psychology experimental and critical These conflicting approaches are brought together in a single coherent text Handbook of International Feminisms Alexandra Rutherford,Rose Capdevila,Vindhya Undurti,Ingrid Palmary,2011-08-23 The goal of Handbook of International Perspectives on Feminism is to present the histories status and contours of feminist research and practice in their respective regional and or national contexts The editors have invited researchers who are doing this work to present their perspectives on women culture and rights with the objective to illuminate the diverse forms that feminist psychological work takes around the world and connect these forms with the unique positions and concerns of women in these regions What does feminist psychology look like in Japan In South Africa In Sri Lanka In Canada In Brazil How did it come to look this way How do psychologists in these countries or regions each with unique political economic and cultural histories engage in feminist work in the societies in which they live How do they employ the tools of psychology broadly defined to do this work and what tensions and challenges have they faced Self, Community and Psychology Norman Duncan,2004 A reader for students at the University of South Africa studying community psychology It addresses ideologies of race gender and sexuality that together create particular South African post colonial realities which legitimise oppression and cultural dispossession The Dynamics and Complexities of Interracial Gay Families in South Africa: A New Frontier Oluwafemi Adeagbo,2018-12-12 This book provides an in depth account of a qualitative study on the familial arrangements and domestic settings shaping interracial gay partnerships in the South African context and it offers both empirical and theoretical insights on the topic While heterosexual intimate relationships particularly mixed race couples have attracted societal and scholarly attention in South Africa due to the country s past history of racial segregation it is however striking how little emphasis is placed on understanding same sex unions in a transforming South Africa This book is timely and important because it explores the vignettes complexities and dynamics of interracial gay intimate relationships an area that hardly gets the scholarly attention it deserves The book addresses the intersectionality and the question of how sexuality gender racial identity and personal resources influence the relationship as well as the way resilience strategies are drawn upon to sustain the partnership Inter-group Relations Kopano Ratele,2006 Following the undoing of the racist apartheid government this study critically examines the social and psychological issues that continue to trouble South Africans Topical concerns include language barriers homelessness stereotyping and racism HIV AIDS social influence and dominance as well as different ways of understanding intergroup conflict and cooperation IAAP Handbook of Applied Psychology Paul R. Martin,Fanny Cheung,Michael C. Knowles,Michael Kyrios,Lyn Littlefield,J. Bruce Overmier,José M.
