Alwin, Diane H. Felmlee, Derek A. Kreager, 2018-03-06 This volume engages the interface between the development of human lives and social relational networks It focuses on the integration of two subfields of sociology social science the life course and social networks Research practitioners studying social networks typically focus on social structure or social organization ignoring the complex lives of the people in those networks At the same time life course researchers tend to focus on individual lives without necessarily studying the contexts of social relationships in which lives are embedded and linked to one another through social networks These patterns are changing and this book creates an audience of researchers who will better integrate the two subfields It covers the role of social networks across the life span from childhood and adolescence to midlife through old age      Social Sciences in Health Care and Medicine Janet B. Garner, Thelma C. Christiansen, 2008 Health care and medicine are dependent upon a close interaction with social sciences and professions in order to effectively treat patients Although medicines have becoming more and more targeted in recent times it is the recovery of the patient which is the true test of the system whether it be in a hospital setting or within a daily societal setting Such interactions may be psychological or interactions with social organisations essential to phase the patient back into society This book presents new issues experiences and research in the field from around the globe
