Social Symbolism Of Grief And Mourning:

The Social Symbolism of Grief and Mourning R. B. Grainger, 1985* The Social Symbolism of Grief and Mourning Roger Beckett Grainger, 1979 A Teacher's Handbook of Death Maggie Jackson, Jim Colwell, 2002 Teachers are increasingly called upon to discuss and explain death and dying to children in the classroom This book provides them with methods to facilitate open discussions of death and to find suitable ways of talking with children about what happens when someone they know dies Symbolic Loss Peter Homans, 2000 Historically many world cultures have linked three disparate phenomena collective loss mourning and the construction of monuments and cultural symbols to represent the loss over time and render it memorable meaningful and thereby bearable In a century of great loss observers of western culture have commented on the decline of mourning practices and the absence of their associated rituals The ten essays assembled here by Peter Homans represent in a genuinely interdisciplinary way the recent work of scholars attempting to understand this trend Arranged in sections on cultural studies architecture history and psychology this accessible collection can serve as an introduction to the uses of mourning in contemporary cultures Contributors Paul A Anderson University of Michigan Doris L Bergen University of Notre Dame Mitchell Breitwieser University of California Berkeley Peter Homans University of Chicago Patrick H Hutton University of Vermont Marie Claire Lavabre National Institute for Scientific Research Paris Peter C Shabad Northwestern University Medical School and Columbia Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center Levi P Smith Art Institute of Chicago Julia Stern Northwestern University James E Young University of Massachusetts Amherst Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, Tashel C. Bordere, 2016-02-05 The Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief is a scholarly work of social criticism richly grounded in personal experience evocative case studies and current multicultural and sociocultural theories and research It is also consistently practical and reflective challenging readers to think through responses to ethically complex scenarios in which social justice is undermined by radically uneven opportunity structures hierarchies of voice and privilege personal and professional power and unconscious assumptions at the very junctures when people are most vulnerable at points of serious illness confrontation with end of life decision making and in the throes of grief and bereavement Harris and Bordere give the reader an active and engaged take on the field enticing readers to interrogate their own assumptions and practices while increasing chapter after chapter their cultural literacy regarding important groups and contexts The Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief deeply and uniquely addresses a hot topic in the helping professions and social sciences and does so with uncommon readability We Are What We Mourn Priscila Uppal, 2009 The first book on the Canadian poetic elegy challenges all previous ideas about the purpose of mourning Boundaries of Self and Other in Ghanaian Popular Culture Joseph K. Adjaye, 2004-03-31 Rituals are among the most enduring aspects of the African cultural landscape They appear to exist outside of time eternal and unchanging Joseph Adjaye argues that while rituals may seem to be static in reality they are dynamic and changing Through intense analysis of child naming ceremonies libations puberty initiation rights funerals and two major Ghanaian festivals Adjaye explores the interplay between ritual and audience interaction and participation By so doing he shows the many ways rituals have provided Ghanaians with a means to conceptualize and change their present and shape their future In other words rituals help individuals escape the boundaries of self by promoting a sense of collective purpose and agency This book will appeal to not only Africanists but to readers interested in the roles rituals play in their own lives and the ways that rituals encourage socially transforming initiatives

Loss and Bereavement Sheila Payne, 1999-11-16 How have people sought to understand loss and bereavement What are the current theoretical approaches to loss and bereavement What are the implications of these approaches for interventions This book aims to provide students with an understanding of important theoretical perspectives and specific models of adaptation to loss It is assumed that loss and change are normal processes which occur within a social and cultural context and the reader is introduced to historical and cultural perspectives which illustrate the diversity of approaches to loss Major theoretical perspectives are explored to enable students to understand their origins and influence The authors go on to review the development of common models used to conceptualise individual reactions to loss and provide a critique of these models highlighting the assumptions that underpin them Finally they discuss how these conceptual models have actually been used in clinical and community interventions This is a comprehensive text describing the variety of approaches available to understand the process of loss and bereavement

The Social Construction of Death Leen Van Brussel, Nico Carpentier, 2014-07-31 Chapter 12 of this book is open access under a CC BY license Well established scholars from a variety of disciplines including sociology anthropology media and cultural studies and political sciences use the social construction of death and dying to analyse a wide variety of meaning making practices in societal fields such as ethics politics media medicine and family

The Materiality of Mourning Zahra Newby, Ruth Toulson, 2018-07-17 Tangible remains play an important role in our relationships with the dead they are pivotal to how we remember mourn and grieve The chapters in this volume analyse a diverse range of objects and their role in the processes of grief and mourning with contributions by scholars in anthropology history fashion thanatology religious studies archaeology classics sociology and political science The book brings together consideration of emotions memory and material agency to inform a deeper understanding of the specific roles played by objects in funerary contexts across historical and contemporary societies

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Negotiating Death in Contemporary Health and Social Care Margaret Holloway,2007-10-17 This book brings together perspectives from social science health care and pastoral theology looking at the way death is handled in contemporary society and the sensitive ethical and practical dilemmas facing nurses social workers doctors and chaplains

Welcome Home, Boys! Sebastian Jobs,2012-10 This book takes on the subject of military victory parades in New York City during the first half of the 20th century and looks on these performances as political street theater The study shows how abstract concepts like the nation state or Americanism were represented and embodied in these events With its focus on the three main groups of actors involved in the parades organizers soldiers spectators the book demonstrates how these marches can only be understood as a collaboration of these actors each group interpreting the event in their very distinct ways The book deepens our understanding of how political performances functioned in the U S and how they made an impact on society Page 4 of cover

Death, Grief and Poverty in Britain, 1870-1914 Julie-Marie Strange,2005-07-25 With high mortality rates it has been assumed that the poor in Victorian and Edwardian Britain did not mourn their dead Contesting this approach Julie Marie Strange studies the expression of grief among the working class demonstrating that poverty increased rather than deadened it She illustrates the mourning practices of the working classes through chapters addressing care of the corpse the funeral the cemetery commemoration and high infant mortality rates The book draws on a broad range of sources to analyse the feelings and behaviours of the labouring poor using not only personal testimony but also fiction journalism and official reports It concludes that poor people did not only use spoken or written words to express their grief but also complex symbols actions and significantly silence This book will be an invaluable contribution to an important and neglected area of social and cultural history

EBOOK: An Intimate Loneliness Gordon Riches,Pam Dawson,2000-01-16 What impact does a child s death have on family relationships How might differences in the way mothers and fathers deal with bereavement contribute to increased marital tension Why are bereaved siblings so deeply affected by the way their parents grieve An Intimate Loneliness explores how family members attempt to come to terms with the death of an offspring or brother or sister Drawing on relevant research and the authors own experience of working with bereaved parents and siblings this book examines the importance of social relationships in helping parents and siblings adjust to their bereavement The chances of making sense of this most distressing loss are influenced by the resilience of the family s surviving relationships by the availability of wider support networks and by the cultural resources that inform each s perception of death This book considers the impact of bereavement on self and family identity In particular it examines the role of shared remembering in transforming survivors relationships with the deceased and in helping rebuild their own identity with a significantly changed family structure Problems considered include the failure of intimate relationships cultural and gender expectations the invisibility of fathers and siblings grief sudden and difficult deaths lack of information and the sense of isolation felt by some family members This book will be of value to students on courses in counselling health care psychology social policy pastoral care and education It will appeal to sociology students with an interest in death dying and mortality It is also aimed at professionally qualified counselling health and social service workers at informed voluntary group members the clergy teachers and others involved with pastoral care

Death, Dying and Bereavement Sharon Mallon, Laura Towers, 2024-11-28 While death dying and bereavement are universal life events the social conditions under which death takes place are fundamental in shaping how it is experienced by the individual Bringing together contributors from around the world this collection of chapters provides sociological insights into death dying and bereavement Drawing upon a range of sociological theorists including mile Durkheim Zygmunt Bauman and C Wright Mills the book reviews the historical contribution of sociology to the field of thanatology In doing so the book challenges individualistic psychological approaches to death dying and bereavement and demonstrates how sociological approaches can shape constrain and empower experiences by imbuing them with both collective and individual meaning Chapter length case studies explore a wide range of issues from digital aspects of remembrance and memorialisation and continued threats to liberties that permit life and death decisions to discussions of the impact and likely legacy of COVID 19 and climate change This collection will be of interest to students and researchers in the social sciences with an interest in societal attitudes towards death and bereavement Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license
