The Political Theory of Che Guevara
Renzo Llorente, 2018-02-09 Nearly half a century after his death Ernesto Che Guevara remains a compelling and controversial figure He was an original social theorist and many of his writings attest to an innovative interpretation of various concepts and commitments central to Marxist thought This is one of the first works to comprehensively consider his contribution to social and political theory for a student audience Firstly the book provides thorough and reliable accounts of the key theses concepts and commitments that give Che Guevara's theoretical and political orientation its distinctive character It addresses Guevara's views on topics such as work morality in socialism egalitarianism prefigurative politics internationalism and the process of disembargeoisement Secondly the study situates Guevara's ideas within the context of the Marxist theoretical tradition and on the other hand twentieth century Latin American social thought To this end it will explore both the affinities and dissimilarities between Guevara's views on certain fundamental questions and the views represented by such figures as Marx Lenin Herbert Marcuse and Jos Carlos Mari tegui Finally The Political Thought of Che Guevara will provide critical assessments of Che's key ideas many of which remain relevant to contemporary debates in socialist theory

Global Justice Ernesto Che Guevara, 2024-06-25 Three speeches on corporate globalism and imperialism by one of the most widely known guerilla fighters political theorists and organizers Che Guevara In this collection of three speeches Ernesto Che Guevara offers a revolutionary view of a world in which human solidarity and understanding replace imperialist aggression and exploitation First in a sharp speech given in Algeria on February 24 1965 at the Afro Asia Economic Seminar Che speaks about the nature of capitalism and the revolutionary struggle that would open the way for a new socialist society Guevara's 1965 essay Socialism and Man in Cuba is a milestone in twentieth century emancipatory social thought Finally Message to the Tricontinental is one of Che's more well known works which outlines the tactics and strategies that should be followed in revolutionary struggle This collection of writings merges Che's philosophy politics and economics in his all encompassing coherent revolutionary vision His ideas and his struggle strike a chord in the current

Martel, 2011-01-01 How Not to Be Governed explores the contemporary debates and questions concerning anarchism in our own time The authors address the political failures of earlier practices of anarchism and the claim that anarchism is impracticable by examining the anarchisms that have been theorized and practiced in the midst of these supposed failures The authors revive the possibility of anarchism even as they examine it with a critical lens Rather than breaking with prior anarchist practices this volume reveals the central values and tactics of anarchism that remain with us practiced even in the most unlikely and impossible contexts

Gender and the Self in Latin American Literature Emma Staniland, 2015-10-05 This book explores six texts from across Spanish America in which the coming of age story Bildungsroman offers a critique of gendered selfhood as experienced in the region's socio cultural contexts Looking at a range of novels from the late twentieth century Staniland explores thematic concerns in terms of their role in elucidating a literary journey towards agency that is towards the articulation of a socially and personally viable female gendered identity mindful of both the hegemonic discourses that constrain it and the possibility of their deconstruction and reconfiguration Myth exile and the female body are the three central themes for understanding the personal social and political aims of the Post Boom women writers whose work is explored in this volume Isabel Allende Laura Esquivel Angeles Mastretta Sylvia Molloy Cristina Peri Rossi and Zo Vald's Their adoption and adaptation of an originally eighteenth century and European literary genre is seen here to reshape the global canon as much as it works to reshape our understanding of gendered identities as socially constructed culturally contingent and open ended Manifesto Ernesto Che Guevara, Friedrich Engels, Karl Marx, Rosa Luxemburg, 2015-04-10 If you are curious and open to the life around you if you are troubled as to why how and by whom political power is held and used if you sense there must be good intellectual reasons for your unease if your curiosity and openness drive you toward wishing to act with others to do something you already have much in common with the writers of the three essays in this book Adrienne Rich With a preface by Adrienne Rich Manifesto presents the radical vision of four famous young rebels Marx and Engels Communist Manifesto Rosa Luxemburg's Reform or Revolution and Che Guevara's Socialism and Humanity Creating the New Man Yinghong Cheng, 2008-12-31 The idea of eliminating undesirable traits from human temperament to create a new man has been part of moral and political thinking worldwide for millennia During the Enlightenment European philosophers sought to construct an ideological framework for reshaping human nature But it was only among the communist regimes of the twentieth century that such ideas were actually put into practice on a nationwide scale In this book Yinghong Cheng examines three culturally diverse sociopolitical experiments the Soviet Union under Lenin and Stalin China under Mao and

Cuba under Castro in an attempt to better understand the origins and development of the new man The book s fundamental concerns are how these communist revolutions strove to create a new morally and psychologically superior human being and how this task paralleled efforts to create a superior society To these ends it addresses a number of questions What are the intellectual roots of the new man concept How was this idealistic and utopian goal linked to specific political and economic programs How do the policies of these particular regimes based as they are on universal communist ideology reflect national and cultural traditions Cheng begins by exploring the origins of the idea of human perfectibility during the Enlightenment His discussion moves to other European intellectual movements and then to the creation of the Soviet Man the first communist new man in world history Subsequent chapters examine China s experiment with human nature starting with the nationalistic debate about a new national character at the turn of the twentieth century and Cuban perceptions of the new man and his role in propelling the revolution from a nationalist to a socialist and finally a communist movement The last chapter considers the global influence of the Soviet Chinese and Cuban experiments Creating the New Man contributes greatly to our understanding of how three very different countries and their leaders carried out problematic and controversial visions and programs It will be of special interest to students and scholars of world history and intellectual social and revolutionary history and also development studies and philosophy
