Society, Schools and Progress in Israel Aharon F. Kleinberger, 1969 Society, Schools and Progress in Israel Aharon F. Kleinberger, 2014-05-15 Society Schools and Progress in Israel is a part of a series of books that cross reference each other to form a comparative study about the society education and progress of various countries This particular volume is concerned with Israel The text first details the historical background of Israel and then proceeds to discussing society polity and economy Next the selection covers the legislation and politics of education The next series of chapters deals with educational concerns The last chapter of the text discusses the problems in equality minority and identity in Israel The book will be of great use to political scientists sociologists economists and psychologists Introducing Comparative Education A. R. Trethewey, 2014-05-18 Introducing Comparative Education aims to familiarize newcomers with comparative education as a field of study and to provide a continuing reference as people become more actively involved with comparative studies and the problems associated with developing them in rigorous and productive ways The purposes and methods of comparative education are also discussed Comprised of eight chapters this book begins by presenting a neat simple and generally accepted definition of comparative education The reader is then introduced to the history and development of comparative education the purposes of comparative education some of the pitfalls in trying to compare education or educational systems across cultural and national boundaries and some of the alternative methods open to those who would like to develop studies in comparative education The approaches associated with Isaac Kandel Nicholas Hans and G Z F Bereday Brian Holmes Edmund King Harold Noah and Max Eckstein are considered The book concludes with a listing of resources for teaching and learning This monograph is intended for students and educators

The Educational System of Israel Nellie Mary Apanasewicz, 1979 Immigrant Entrepreneurs and Immigrants in the United States and Israel Ivan Light, Richard E. Isralowitz, 2019-01-15 First published in 1997 This book now opens the unduly delayed discussion about how

Israel and the USA deal with immigration and how they are transformed by it Approaching the discussion from the point of view of contemporary immigration research this book prioritizes the economic processes of immigrant insertion in Israel and the USA immigrant absorption and assimilation in both countries policy debates and women immigrants for extended treatment Additionally a photographic section mobilizes the new subject of visual sociology to continue the comparative analysis Child Care in Context Michael E. Lamb, Kathleen J. Sternberg, Carl-Philip Hwang, Anders G. Broberg, 2014-01-02

Child care is an integral part of the web of influences and experiences that shape children's development Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach that covers both historic and economic contexts this unique book characterizes child care in 18 countries on five continents Specific historical roots and the current social contexts of child care are delineated in industrialized as well as in developing countries To increase the depth of crosscultural analysis and integration commentators from countries and disciplines other than the authors comment on the issues raised in each chapter

Wildfire Sam Lehman-Wilzig, 1992-02-06 Wildfire is a wide ranging interdisciplinary study of the other side of Israeli public life Because the governmental service systems work poorly and political protest has proved to be largely ineffective the Israeli public has begun to take matters into their own hands in effect creating numerous alternative service systems in almost all spheres of life International Perspectives on Psychology in the Schools Philip A. Saigh, Thomas

Oakland, 2013-05-13 To promote a broader understanding of the increasingly important role of school psychology in educational systems throughout the world the editors of this volume collected the works of leading international educators and authorities Using research from 24 countries the book provides current information on educational systems and training facilities psychology services educational contributions to society and directions for shaping children's futures through education The Limits of Coexistence Rebecca L. Torstrick, 2000 Assesses the factors that will determine whether Jews and Palestinians can live together in peace Reform and Change in Higher Education James Mauch, Paula Sabloff, 2018-10-10 Originally published in 1995 Reform and Change in Higher Education is composed of 9 essays originally presented at a symposium International Perspectives on the Relationship Between Governments and Universities and a UNESCO Forum of Experts on Strengthening Capacities for Research in Higher Education Papers explore how government policy affects universities and how universities influence government This collection presents case studies of educational reform and change in 10 nations focusing on the changing role of government involvement in higher education The book deals comparatively with planned change in systems of higher education initiated by central governments and with the character and dynamics of state university relationships both collectively and individually After The Eagles Landed

Herbert S. Lewis, 2019-04-05 This book portrays aspects of the life of a community of over 1 200 Jews who were either born in Yemen or who were in 1975-77 the young sons and daughters of immigrants from Yemen It contains implications for the important and currently debated topic of ethnic integration in Israel Voluntary Agencies in the Welfare State Ralph

M. Kramer, 2023-04-28 The rise of the welfare state threatens the autonomy and survival of nonprofit voluntary agencies as providers of social services Or does it In this cross national empirical study of the workings of voluntary agencies Ralph M Kramer cuts through the conceptual confusion surrounding voluntarism and the boundaries between the public and private sectors He draws on a survey of voluntary agencies helping disabled people in four welfare democracies the United States England Israel and the Netherlands to explain the virtues and flaws of different patterns of government voluntary relationships in coping with the growing demand for human services Kramer concludes that many of the most cherished beliefs about the voluntary sector have little basis in fact The most innovative agencies for example are not the smallest but rather among the largest most bureaucratized and most professionalized Government funding does not necessarily constrain agency autonomy And giving voluntary agencies the primary responsibility for social services can reduce not increase citizen participation This comparative analysis of the distinctive competence vulnerability and potential of the voluntary agency should replace some of the myths that guide public policy and the day to day activities of social service agencies This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1981 Politics and Policy-Making in Israel's Education System Haim Gaziel, 1996-01-01 This volume describes and analyses the structure of Israel s education system from a political and policy making perspective
