relative clauses This collection is presented to Manfred Woidich one of the most eminent scholars in the field of Arabic dialectology Language Contact and Language Conflict in Arabic Aleya Rouchdy, 2013-05-13 This book contains 17 studies by leading international scholars working on a wide range of topics in Arabic socio linguistics divided into four parts The studies in Part 1 address questions of national language planning in a diglossic situation with a particular focus on North Africa Part 2 explores the relationship of identity and language choice in different Arabic speaking communities living both within and outside the Arab World Part 3 examines language choice in such diverse contexts as popular preaching humour and Arab women s writing Part 4 contains 5 papers in which variation code switching and generational language shift in the Arabic language diaspora in Europe and the USA are the focus The collection as a whole provides wide ranging introduction to key areas of current research which will be of interest to the general sociolinguist as well as the Arabic language specialist

Arabic and the Media Reem Bassiouney, 2010-03-02 This volume is the first of its kind to deal with the relation between Arabic and the media It focuses on close analyses of examples of media Arabic code switching language variation orthography and constructions of identity and also offers approaches to the use of media for teaching Arabic The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World Martin J Ball, 2009-12-16 Drawing on examples from a wide range of languages and social setting The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World is the first single volume collection surveying current and recent research trends in international sociolinguistics With over 30 chapters written by leading authorities in the region concerned all continents and their respective regions are covered The book will serve as an important tool to help widen the perspective on sociolinguistics to readers of English Divided into sections covering The Americas Asia Australasia Africa and the Middle East and Europe the book provides readers with a solid up to date appreciation of the interdisciplinary nature of the field of sociolinguistics in each area It clearly explains the patterns and systematicity that underlie language variation in use as well as the ways in which alternations between different language varieties mark personal style social power and national identity The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics around the World is the ideal resource for all students on undergraduate sociolinguistics courses and researchers involved in the study of language society and power English Language and Linguistics Sociolinguistics Language, Society and Ideologies in Multilingual Egypt Valentina Serreli, 2024-03-18 The book explores the change over time in language society relations in a multilingual periphery of Egypt It examines the role of language ideologies in the construction and negotiation of social identities in the processes of contact maintenance and shift typical of multilingualism Based on extensive fieldwork and interviews it is the first of its kind to portray the inventory of linguistic and accompanying non linguistic behaviors observed within and between different ethnolinguistic groups in the Siwa Oasis It provides first hand information about the linguistic habits of Siwan women an aspect which is generally difficult to access in this gender segregated community The book sheds light on Berber Arabic contact at the core of the Arab world and at a critical time when individual linguistic repertoires are expanding and Arabic is emerging as a powerful resource Gender and Language in Sub-Saharan Africa Lilian Lem Atanga, Sibonile Edith Ellece, Lia Litosseliti, Jane Sunderland, 2013 Gender and Language in Sub-Saharan Africa: Tradition, Struggle and Change is the first book to bring together the topics of language and gender in African languages and gender in African contexts and it does so in a descriptive, explanatory and critical way. Including fascinating new work and new often challenging data from Botswana, Chad, Ghana, Kenya, Nigeria and South Africa, this collection looks at some traditional uses of language in relation to the gender of its speakers and the gendered nature of the languages themselves; it also identifies and explores social change in terms of both gender and sexuality as reflected in and constructed by language and discourse. The contributions to this volume are accessibly written and will be of interest to students and established academics working on African sociolinguistics and discourse as well as those whose interest is language, gender and sexuality.
