Story Of Christianity From Birth To Global Presence:

The Story of Christianity Jakob Balling, 2003 In order to highlight the long lines of continuity and development in the historical process of the religion Balling ancient and medieval church history U of Aarhus Denmark slides over many events that would illuminate the nuances and diversity of that process and limits his study to European Story of Christianity from Birth to Global Presence Jakob Balling, 2003-10-01 A new look at Christianity in relation to its historical social contexts

While the story of Christianity has been told many times this new study by Jakob Balling focuses newly and fruitfully on how the faith's message and organization have shaped and have been shaped by different social contexts throughout history Balling divides his historical survey into four parts The first looks at the birth of Christianity giving special attention to the interaction of tradition and originality in the ministry of Jesus and in the early church Balling then places the growth of the church in the Mediterranean world from the second to fifth centuries exploring how sociopolitical factors led to the distinctive traits of Western and Eastern Christianity Part three of the book examines the spread of Christianity into Europe with the tremendous changes this period of history brought to the contemporary church Finally the book considers Christianity as a world religion discussing the challenges posed to the faith by modern forces like secularization and globalization Enhanced by illustrations throughout this accessible volume highlights the consequential interplay between Christian faith and its local settings

Mother Tongue Theologies Darren J. N. Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world's Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity's dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature's diversity And it highlights non Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity's global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity's foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so called post Christian West has a tremendously important role in the history of Christianity and was the continent with the most Christians from roughly the year 900 to 1980 However Europe is now home to only 22 percent of all Christians in the world down from 68 percent in 1900 The major trend of European religion in the twentieth and twenty first centuries has been secularization disestablishment and decreased influence of state churches lower importance of religion in the public sphere the decline of religious beliefs and practices and individual religious switching from Christianity to atheism and agnosticism One hundred years ago it was true that the typical Christian in the world was a white European Given current trends however Europe is clearly no longer the geographic nor demographic center of world Christianity Yet that does not mean Europe has no role in the future It is still the home of major Christian communions such as Catholics Rome Anglicans Canterbury Russian Orthodox Moscow and Lutherans Geneva European mission agencies are active throughout the world providing theological education and social welfare programs combatting climate change and advocating for gender equality Miracles : 2 Volumes Craig S. Heath,2022-03-14 In Christians the State and War An Ancient Tradition for the Modern World Gordon Heath argues that the pre Constantinian Christian testimony regarding the state s just use of violence was remarkably uniform and that it was arguably a catholic or universal tradition More specifically that tradition had five interrelated and intertwined constitutive areas of consensus that can best be understood as parts of one collective tradition Heath further argues that those five related areas of an early church tradition shaped all subsequent theological developments on views of the state its use of violence and the conditions of Christian participation in said violence Whereas the sorry and sordid instances in the church's history related to violence were times when the church drifted from those convictions of consensus the cases when Christians had a more stellar record of responding to the horrors of the world were times when they lived up to them Consequently the way forward today is for Christians to forgo beginning with the just war pacifist debate and instead to begin by letting their views on war and peace be shaped by that ancient tradition

A Short World History of Christianity, Revised Edition Robert Bruce Mullin, 2014-11-22 Church historians have long known and appreciated Christianity's global history Until recently however introductory textbooks on the history of Christianity focused almost exclusively on Europe and North America Robert Bruce Mullin's A Short World History of Christianity by contrast offers a panoramic picture of the history of Christianity in its Western and non Western expressions It tells the story of the early church in the Greek East as well as the Latin West of Christianity's spread into Asia as well as Europe during the Middle Ages and its explosion around the world during the modern period Mullin's highly readable narrative explores why global perspectives have emerged so strongly in our understanding of the story of Christianity and how they have impacted Christianity's perspective on its place in the world This newly revised edition adds information on such global phenomena as early Syriac speaking Christianity the growth of Pentecostalism around the world especially in the southern hemisphere and recent trends in Christianity including the elevation of the first pope born in the Americas A time line of key dates call out boxes and other helpful study materials are also provided Beginning students will appreciate this memorable introduction to the most important events in the history and development of Christianity

Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A.
