

The Story of Hanukkah

A long time ago, in a country called Israel, stood the Temple in the city of Jerusalem.

There lived an evil king called Antiochus, the King of Syria. He didn't like people who had different beliefs to his own. He went around the world, fighting against people so that he could make them follow his beliefs.

King Antiochus decided to fight the people of Israel. His army went and he told everyone that now that he was in charge, only his gods could be worshipped. He told the Jewish people of Israel that they must give up their own beliefs and follow his, and if they didn't, they would be punished harshly. One of his orders was to destroy the Jewish temple, including the beautiful men in Jerusalem.

Most of the people decided they had no other choice but to follow Antiochus' commands but one man, Judah Maccabee, decided that the king was wrong and something had to be done. Judah and his brothers, who were great soldiers, formed an army to fight the king and his army.

Judah's army, known as the Maccabees, were much smaller than the King's army, but the brothers fought with all their might because they were fighting for what they believed in.
