Sciences Modern states have sought to curb control and subdue informality The entries in the Global Encyclopaedia demonstrate the endurance of informality over such efforts More recently the rise and political success of anti establishment movements in so many parts of the world is a wide ranging challenge and delegitimisation of national and transnational formal institutions of governance Understanding the perceived shortcomings of formal institutions and the appeal of anti establishment movements must at least in part be informed by a study of informality and its networks This Encyclopaedia is essential reading if we wish to understand and engage with these challenges of our age Fredrik Galtung Chairman Integrity Action

Dancing the Fairy Tale Laura Katz Rizzo, 2015-02-15 In Dancing the Fairy Tale Laura Katz Rizzo claims that The Sleeping Beauty is both a metaphor for ballet itself and a powerful case study for examining ballet and its production and performance Using Marius Petipa and Pyotr Tchaikovsky's classical dance specifically as it was staged in Philadelphia over nearly 70 years Katz Rizzo looks at the gendered nature of women staging coaching and reanimating this magnificent ballet and well as the ongoing push pull between tradition and innovation within the art form Using extensive archival research dance analysis and American feminist theory Dancing the Fairy Tale places women at the center of a historical narrative to reveal how the production and performance of The Sleeping Beauty in the years between 1937 and 2002 made significant contributions to the development and establishment of an American classical ballet Katz Rizzo highlights not only what women have done not only behind the scenes as administrators producers or directors of ballet companies and schools but also as active interpreters embodying the ballet's title role In the process Katz Rizzo also emphasizes the importance of regional sites outside of locations traditionally understood as central to the development of ballet in the United States
