

The story of Persephone

The daughter of Demeter and Zeus, Persephone was known for her sweetness and beauty. While she attracted the attention of many her mother was sure to keep them away from her. Always turning down the proposals wanting to keep her daughter close.

Hades, god of the underworld, is one of the many suitors drawn to her. However., when he asked for her hand. Demeter refused to part from her only daughter. One day she was taken by the god. Demeter searched for her with the help of Helios (though some stories claim it was Hecate). When she found her daughter she was married to the god. In her grief and anger Demeter withdrew causing the crops and harvest to stop.

When Persephone heard of her mothers grief she went to see her. Though Hades slipped her some pomegranate seeds ensuring her return to him. The deal is that she spends 6 months in the underworld with her husband. While the other 6 she's free to be with her mother. Thus why for 6 months there's no harvest. These are the months Persephone is away from her mother leaving her to her grief.
