Great Stories From Modern India Suresh Kohli, 2015 Not long ago several naysayers readied to write the epitaph of the short story The novel and the odd novella indeed appeared to relegate the short story to oblivion Fortuitously the short story slipped through with fresh and unexplored angularities to reclaim its rightful place in the corpus of world literature Today the short story's robustness continues to baffle the heretics and delight the believers In India particularly hundreds of authors practise this craft in a multitude of languages exploring a variety of themes often in the face of stiff opposition from State sponsored ideologues Great Stories From Modern India brings under a single awning some of the most celebrated Indian writers who have excelled in the craft SH Vatsyayan Aggyeya Rajinder Singh Bedi Khushwant Singh Amrita Pritam Vaikom Muhammad Basheer Premendra Mitra Mulk Raj Anand Balwant Gargi Kamleshwar Krishan Chander Qurratulain Hyder Ruskin Bond and Indira Goswami among others While each story presents yet another unfathomable spectrum of human emotions in the writer's unique voice this anthology like an orchestral piece culminates in the shared quest of the meaning of existence adversity survival annihilation election exile crime redemption and finally homecoming

You Have Gone Too Far Carlene O'Connor, 2024-10-22 With the haunting moody prose of Tana French and the compulsive storytelling of Dervla McTiernan or Ann Cleeves bestselling author Carlene O'Connor lures readers to a remote village on Ireland's southwest coast where winding windswept roads open to spectacular views of rugged cliffs against immense lonely beaches and some fear a mysterious cult could be connected to the disappearance of a young pregnant woman After two pregnant women in Dingle who have never met each receive a chilling email warning them that they're in grave danger the two decide to meet each other to figure out what is going on But when one of the mothers Shauna a deaf woman arrives at their meeting place at the village Spring Festival she fears a trap and hurries off to meet the couple who plan to adopt her baby But the adoptive couple are discovered tied up in their home telling a terrifying story of Shauna being abducted by a man wearing a butterfly mask Detective Inspector Cormac O'Brien and Detective Sergeant Barbara Neely fear a repeat of a disturbing case from 29 years earlier when a charismatic leader calling himself the Shepherd lured poor pregnant girls into his enigmatic cult Meanwhile Dimpna Wilde has her hands full with lambing season and keeping track of her father so she's grateful for the help of a well-meaning 10-year-old boy Dylan But when the lad goes missing after bicycling to a bog on a dare she is desperate to help find him But somewhere in a cold dark room Shauna is trapped with her unborn child's and a mysterious boy If she is to have any chance of getting out and away from the Moth Man she'll have to figure out the truth behind who she really is and how that connects to the ordeal she finds herself in now But time is running out and her baby will be born soon

Phoenix Eyes and Other Stories Russell Charles Leong, 2012-02-01 Russell Charles Leong shows an astonishing range in this new collection of stories From struggling war refugees to monks intellectuals to sex workers his characters are both linked and separated by their experiences as modern Asians and Asian Americans In styles ranging from naturalism to high camp parody Leong goes beneath stereotypes of immigrant and American born Chinese hustlers and academics Buddhist priests and street people Displacement and marginalization and the search for love and liberation are persistent themes Leong s people are set apart by sexuality by war by AIDS by family dislocations From this vantage point on the outskirts of conventional life they often see clearly the accommodations we make with identity and with desire A young teen ager sold into prostitution to finance her brothers education saves her hair trimmings to burn once a year in a temple ritual the one part of her body that is under her own control A documentary film producer raised in a noisy Hong Kong family marvels at the popular image of Asian Americans as a silenced minority Traditional Chinese families struggle to come to terms with gay children and AIDS
