Story Of Shalom:

A Story of Shalom Philip A. Cunningham, 2001 Stimulus Books are volumes co sponsored by the Stimulus Foundation and Paulist Press that deal with topics of vital interest to the Jewish Christian dialogue This latest Stimulus Book A Story of Shalom is in the words of the author an experiment In it he takes the dawn of the millennium as an opportunity to retell the Christian story the origins of the church its purposes its doings over the centuries and its goals for the future in a way that envisions a positive relationship between the Christian and Jewish peoples He rejects the old story of creation as supersessionist believing that Christianity has replaced Judaism as God s chosen people And he tells the Christian story in a way that promotes Shalom by affirming Judaism s covenant with God and the validity of Jewish self understanding Weal and Woe Reinder Ruud Ganzevoort, Heye K. Heyen, 2004 This book explores the connections between salvation and evil in their Christian religious and non religious shapes How are our biographies embedded in the Christian tradition and the surrounding culture How do we deal with experiences of evil and how do we yearn for or enact shalom The Kampen research group in practical theology and ethics explores these concepts and argues for a multidimensional understanding

Soviet Life ,1972 Life After Suffering Chris Williams, 2011-01-12 Viktor Frankl an Auschwitz survivor once said that to be human is to suffer Suffering is an unavoidable part of life but how do we engage our suffering in a culture that teaches us to avoid suffering at all costs Through the telling of two stories the horrific death of his parents and the exiled Judeans of the sixth century BCE Chris Williams offers a way of engaging suffering that questions the dominant voices of popular culture Perhaps hope is not found in avoiding suffering at all costs but by inviting others into our darkest moments
