approach is then used to explore Harrison's extensive catalog of solo works which due to their varied cultural sources seem increasingly like early examples of Global Pop. In that sense the music of George Harrison may ultimately be viewed as an important locus for pan cultural influence in the 20th century making this book essential reading for those interested in the history of songwriting and recording as well as the cultural study of popular music Celebrating the Seasons of Life:

Samhain to Ostara Ashleen O'Gaea, 2009-04-21 Unique among books about the Wiccan Sabbats Celebrating the Seasons of Life Samhain to Ostara takes a different approach to explaining the holidays by taking an in depth look at half of the Wheel of the Year. Rather than dissecting each holiday Ashleen's goal is to take a broader look at them explaining how and why we celebrate each along with how the celebration of one leads to the next. The first of two new titles from Ashleen offers a vision of the holidays we celebrate from October to March. This book covers each holiday by first giving us its history and original customs then explaining its place in modern life. Stories are shared for each Sabbat to reconnect us with our lore and bring new meaning to current practice. Ashleen includes ideas for rituals that are ideal for practicing solitaires, covens or Wiccan families with special sections on what children of various ages are ready to learn about these holidays Literary Celebrity in Canada Lorraine York, 2017-05-08 In recent years Canadian authors have enjoyed tremendous international success writing novels that become Oscar nominated films or achieve coveted success as selections for the Oprah Winfrey bookclub. Literary Celebrity in Canada is the first extended study of the dynamics of celebrity in the field of Canadian literature. Building on the argument that celebrity is a phenomenon firmly embraced by mainstream culture Lorraine York examines it in relation to various tensions and conflicts within the literary community and beyond. Using as examples three contemporary literary celebrities Margaret Atwood, Michael Ondaatje and Carol Shields and four earlier popular writers Pauline Johnson, Stephen Leacock, Mazo de la Roche and L. M. Montgomery York demonstrates that individual authors respond differently to fame in ways that can be contradictory and complex. She casts doubt on the notion of a specifically Canadian response to fame. Depending on the public interpretation of a particular writer's life and work different tensions arise in negotiating literary celebrity. Privacy versus publicity, swift success versus laborious apprenticeship, national versus international association or ownership of the celebrity, no single version of celebrity applies to all. Citizenship however is a remarkably consistent site of tension for stars literary or otherwise. Like citizenship, celebrity marks an uneasy space wherein the single individual and the group demographic both meet and separate. Literary Celebrity in Canada explores that space drawing on current theories of celebrity and questioning their tendency to view fame as an empty phenomenon. This study is an innovative attempt to understand the psychology of literary stardom and will influence future research on contemporary literature and popular culture Celebrating Planet Earth, a Pagan/Christian Conversation Denise Cush, 2015-05-29
