Story Of The Heart:

The Story of a Heart Rachel Clarke, 2024-09-03 The Story of a Heart is an extraordinary compelling account of life giving medicine Rachel Clarke follows the journey of a human heart and narrates one of the most miraculous developments in 20th century medicine as she describes the saving of a nine year old boy Bokinfo The Story of My Heart Richard Jefferies, 1883 From the Heart Jeffrey L. Kosky, 2025-02-25 What does it mean to have a heart How does it feel when a heart fails and what does it take to recover In a world beset by never ending crises personal and collective local and global is heartlessness the only option From the Heart weaves together a personal narrative of a life threatening ailment with considerations of philosophy art and science to contemplate ultimate questions matters of life and death Jeffrey L Kosky recounts his brush with death the surgical repair of a congenital defect in his aortic valve his gradual recovery of everyday life and his struggle to find the heart to go on throughout it all To make sense of the experience he immerses himself in humanistic inquiry and medical science the histories of medicine cardiac surgery and knowledge of the human heart as well as the works of artists writers philosophers and theologians Writing about the experience of being human from the precarious position of his own woundedness Kosky shares hard earned perspectives on what matters most Combining moving memoir encounters with major authors and artists and heartfelt reflections on the big questions of existence this elegantly written book is at once erudite and powerful It shows us why the heart in physical emotional and metaphorical senses helps us come to terms with sickness and health dying and living A Woman's Heart , The Story of a Heart Transplant , 2000*

My Eternal Heart , 2018-09-12 This book these collective writings of my mind my heart and my soul Are my thoughts my emotions my turmoils and my very life in chaos my very existence in poetic tragedy So if you so choose read and do indulge read and learn read and be merry with life for we can be the diamond amongst the coal We can be the outcasts the everlasting thorns the faces that stand out in the crowd we can be the irregularity Thus I openly and willingly give you my everlasting emotions my internal turmoil my eternal heart To take cherish read and experience something different in your life I give you this to begin the dominos falling The chain reaction of opening your eyes opening your soul seeing and feeling the truth behind every word behind every connection you can make with my life my experiences my amazing works of art But I merely give this away because I want to see all of your lives start I want to see the world change I want it all no more stalling From My Heart to Yours Katherine R. Benson, 2010-05 These poems of love and inspiration came from times of joy and sorrow but through all of those times whether good or bad I had my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by my side His loving kindness and grace has guided me to a place of peace My only hope is that these few words will also help inspire someone else when things sometimes feel unbearable Sincerely Katherine R Benson Pieces of the Heart Bonnie S. Calhoun, 2013-06-01 Cordelia Grace watched Bernard Howard the love of her young life go off to fight for our country in WWII And she has spent the last three years creating the Pine Cone quilt that will grace their marriage bed when he comes home Each row of triangles signifies a layer in her life sets of memories hopes dreams and prayers for her future enough spoken words to cover them forever Her image of their happy ever after grows proportionally as the quilt expands But is the man that returns from the war the same man that she remembered Are the dark shades of color that she had to use for the outside edges of the beloved quilt prophetic of her life to come Can love and faith overcome all The Trauma Heart Judy Crane, 2017-06-27

The majority of people addicted to substances or process addictions such as relationship disorders eating disorders self harming behaviors gambling or pornography are trauma survivors Many people caught in the web of addiction don't identify as trauma survivors until their personal familial intergenerational and in uterine history is exposed Unfortunately relapse is inevitable without trauma resolution that can only take place once their history is exposed It is only when that happens that the behavior disorders will finally make sense For almost 30 years Judy Crane has worked with clients and families who are in great pain due to destructive and dangerous behaviors Families often believe that their loved one must be bad or defective and the one struggling with the addiction not only believes it too but feels it to their core The truth is the whole family is embroiled in their own individual survival coping mechanisms the addicted member is often the red flag indicating that the whole family needs healing In The Trauma Heart Crane explores the many ways that life's events impact each member of the family She reveals the essence of trauma and addictions treatment through the stories art and assignments of former clients and the staff who worked with them offering a snapshot of their pain and healing Voices of the Heart I. Bernard

Brown, 2018-04-27 Voices of the heart is a collection of poems and lyrical bits of real life emotions pains joys moments and dreams captured in words This collection of poetry spans over 45 years I wrote my first poem as I can recall when I was but a teenager I remember seeing some beautiful red birds in the trees it was a thing of beauty and in those days I did not have a camera Through the years as things touched my heart are bothered me I wrote about them At that time I only wrote about it so I can remember it and had no inkling of composing a book poetry but after writing so many poems through the years of my good and bad experiences and now that I'm retired and live in the woods by the lake and sits on my porch much of the time it came into my spirit and I decided to clean some of my bits up and put them together for everyone who wish to share them I call my collection Voices of the Heart This collection of poems concerns mostly my life for the last 45 years through the joys pains and strife two marriages six meaningful relationships six children four different women undergraduate and graduate degrees from two colleges one is south and one in the Midwests and having reside in three states My life has always been a journey never a destination I am about 60 now my thoughts are still beyond the familiar I often think about getting my doctorate degrees build a house in the mountains and making more memories I cherish every fleeting moment and appreciate life like its no tomorrow every day
