The Straight Mind in Corinth Gillian Townsley, 2017-07-28 A new reading that troubles and transgresses the normal with regard to biblical studies and our understandings of gender and sexuality Despite its lack of both historical and exegetical clarity 1 Corinthians 11:2-16 has often been fundamental to understandings of gender and sexuality in many Christian traditions In particular a hierarchical model of gender and a heterosexual model of sexuality tend to dominate and are presented as natural and God ordained With the materialist lesbian theory of Monique Wittig providing the theoretical basis for discussion this book intersects various biblical theological and queer lines of inquiry across 1 Corinthians 11 2 16 in order to reveal and challenge these models of gender and sexuality that lie behind both the text itself and its various interpretations Features Reveals the complex relationship between effeminacy masculinity and sexual relations in the first century Greco Roman environment of the New Testament Explores the ideologies of sexuality that underlie much of the debate within evangelical circles Examines Karl Barth s theology on the binary pairing of man and woman as asymmetrically related to each other and to God through the notion of the imago dei revealing and challenging the ways in which this reflects androcentric and patriarchal ideologies

Un/Popular Culture Kathleen Martindale,1997-03-13 Theorizing lesbian Kathleen Martindale writes is like embarking on terra incognita In this book Martindale offers her lucidly written analysis as a guide through the complex and provocative terrain of lesbian literary and cultural theory Using the publication of Adrienne Rich s Compulsory Heterosexuality and Lesbian Existence and the outbreak of the American sex wars as a starting point Martindale traces the emergence of lesbian postmodernism and how lesbian feminism changed from a popular to an un popular culture and from a political vanguard into a cultural neo avant garde Martindale analyzes the theoretical implications of creative texts such as the graphic art and cultural commentary of Alison Bechdel and Diane DiMassa She experiments in autobiography by Joan Nestle and deconstructed lesbian genre fiction by Sarah Schulman to determine how these texts elaborate contemporary theoretical issues These texts she argues are widely available and could be considered as postmodernist rewritings and revisions of the most characteristic and preferred lesbian feminist modes of cultural expression Her analysis raises poignant questions about how lesbians read what they read and what counts as lesbian theory She concludes with a discussion of the status of queer pedagogy in academic institutions and what measures need to be taken to promote and safeguard its existence in what are often homophobic educational settings
