On the Threshold Foxglove Collective, 1999-04-16 In 1993 a group of five Kingston women T Anne Archer Mary Cavanagh Elizabeth Greene Tara Kainer Janice Kirk began to compile an anthology about Canada at the point where one millennium becomes another As the newly formed Foxglove Collective they solicited manuscripts that reflected origins how the past shapes the present life at the end of this century and projections past the year 2000 They envisioned a book that wove together established emerging and previously unpublished voices from the Yukon to the Maritimes that book is On the Threshold Writing Toward the Year 2000 No millennium library would be complete without a copy of this timely and unique collection of literary musings by some of the nation s best A wonderful weave of poetry and prose this anthology reflects on moments both private and public personal and political which have formed the crucible for life in the twenty first century as we know it Tasked with commenting both on the century that lay behind and the century that beckons each author fashioned a piece exemplary of the crises successes and transformations inherent in an arc spanning more than a hundred years of nation building and social upheaval Whether unabashedly optimistic or unapologetically critical these writers make their peace with the past while invoking the future The Fiddlehead Kent Thompson,1996 Voices and Echoes Jo-Anne Elder,Colin O'Connell,Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion,1997-10-15 Every time we raise our voices we hear echoes Jo Anne Elder from the Foreword Through short stories journal entries and poetry the women in Voices and Echoes explore the changing landscape of their spiritual lives Experienced writers such as Lorna Crozier Di Brandt and Ann Copeland as well as strong new voices appear to speak to each other as they draw from a wealth of personal resources to find a way to face life s questions and discover meaning in their lives There is something familiar about these stories and poems they echo those we ve heard before and those we ve half forgotten Whether they search for a voice in a world where men monopolize or journey into painful memories to free the self from the past they do not despair they do not end Individual entries become the whole story an unending story of rebirth and reaffirmation The book begins with an illuminating foreword that introduces readers to the cultural and philosophical background of many of the stories and concludes with the reflections of scholars writers and artists that are intended to provoke further discussion The Concise Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature William Toye,2001 The concise version of the critically acclaimed second edition of The Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature offers all the authority of the original in a smaller more affordable format Entries have been updated and over sixty new entries have been added making it an indispensable resource The Plague of "strange" Bodies Jeanne Irene Willcoxon,2006 The Canadian Forum ,1995 Includes critical reviews Poets & Writers ,1995
