Hedges, 2000 How can therapists treat patients primitive anxieties and overwhelming terrors that are not accessible to verbal interpretation or insight In psychotherapy the traumas suffered in infancy are often reawakened and reexperienced in the safety of the therapeutic relationship While they desperately seek attachment their experience of connection is one of violation and humiliation Their ways of attaching are at the center of what terrifies patients with early trauma and in a successful therapy they structure the development of the transference and come also to terrify the analyst The therapist is confronted with humiliation and abuse from patients who find behavioral ways to communicate their histories These patients require a special connection a new relational experience before they can learn new relational paradigms This book shows therapists how to understand the process of trauma re creation and move with the client through the reexperiencing of the early physical pain and psychological terror and the blaming of the therapist

TEND perspective provides a trauma based band of attunement for attending to all relational encounters including those occurring in therapy Though targeted to mental health professionals this book will help enable therapists and sophisticated lay readers alike to recognize the impact of relational encounters providing new tools to understand the traumas we have experienced and to minimize the hold they have on us

The Sacred Path Beyond Trauma Ellen Macfarland, Ph.D., 2008-06-03

One of Graham Greene s characters famously said I suffer therefore I am suggesting that pain is an inescapable and perhaps incurable part of the human condition But must this be so Ellen Macfarland argues otherwise in The Sacred Beyond Trauma Through the use of mythology stories from film and fiction real life examples and her personal history Macfarland shows that healing trauma is indeed possible using rich resources near at hand in nature The book explores major symbols of healing nature that can provide an impetus for personal transformation One of the case studies profiles Monty Roberts a well known horse trainer who overcame significant childhood abuse by working with horses and eventually fostering some forty children alongside his own biological family The key says Macfarland is using these and other natural symbols such as yin yang to balance the tension between trauma and numinosity sacredness transcendence resulting in the creation of a new way of being in the world Understanding this and the book s other nature based symbols can turn the distressed mind into a fertile field of spiritual awareness empowerment and lifelong growth
