Tibetan Studies: Territory and identity in Tibet and the Himalayas International Association for Tibetan Studies. Seminar, 2002 PIATS 2000 International Association for Tibetan Studies. Seminar, Henk Blezer, A. Zadoks, 2002 This is the first of three volumes of general proceedings from the Ninth Seminar of the International Association of Tibetan Studies It presents a selection of scholarly and academic articles on Tibetan history which includes contemporary developments as well as a linguistic section Proceedings of the Ninth Seminar of the IATS, 2000. Volume 9: Territory and Identity in Tibet and the Himalayas Katia Buffetrille, Hildegard Diemberger, 2021-11-01 Which places does Tibet include Are people Tibetan merely because of living in those places Territory and Identity are notions that are widely present in academic and popular discourses on Tibet In 1992 a group of French and Austrian researchers who had studied some of the mountain deities and sacred landscapes of Tibet began meeting to discuss the links between territory and identity in Tibetan culture Eight years later an interdisciplinary group of scholars met in Leiden in Holland to consider these questions in more detail This book contains some of their findings based on case studies carried out across the Tibetan and Himalayan regions The authors look at the role of local deities kinship economy politics and administration using approaches from across the social sciences to try to work out how a community constructs and reconstructs its idea of itself and how its members think about and are affected by the land on which they were reared Territory and Identity in Tibet and the Himalayas International Association for Tibetan Studies. Seminar, 2002 The essays of this volume result of an interdisciplinary panel held at an IATS conference in Leyden 2000 attempt to document and interpret the ways in which issues of Identity relate to notions of Territory in Tibet and the Himalayas Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 2: Tibetan Borderlands, 2006-08-01 Since the occupation of Tibet by the Peoples Republic of China in 1959 former border principalities and feudatories of the former realm of the Dalai Lama have broken away and have developed sociopolitical and economic bonds with other states Sikkim Bhutan Ladakh and the Tibeto Burman speaking regions of Burma Nepal and others have all developed strong ethnic identities apart from Tibet Eleven well known scholars working in these borderlands of Tibet present in this volume aspects of their current historical linguistic and ethnographic research Originally presented at the Oxford University meeting of the International Association of Tibetan Studies in 2003 the volume provides a unique panoply of cultural diversity within the contemporary Tibeto Burman speaking world Illustrated with introduction Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 12: Buddhism Beyond the Monastery, 2009-09-30 Monasteries have been the locus classicus of the academic investigation of Tibetan religions This volume seeks to balance this emphasis with an exploration of the diverse religious specialists who operate outside of the monastery in Tibet and along the Himalayan belt The articles collected here depict Tantric professionals visionaries village lamas spirit mediums and female religious leaders whose loyalties reside in the noncelibate sphere but whose activities have had a significant impact on Tibetan religion Using methodologies drawn from anthropological and textual scholarship these seven essays bolster our understanding of religious practices and their performers beyond the monasteries of Central and Eastern Tibet Bhutan and India from historical times to the present day Discoveries in Western Tibet and the Western Himalayas International Association for Tibetan Studies. Seminar, 2007 Recent archaeological discoveries and scientific research especially focussed on western Tibet and the western Himalayas have resulted in a remarkable redefinition of the historical and cultural processes of the entire Indo Tibetan civilisation The present volume reflects these sometimes startling new insights for the first time covering the wide time range from the Zhang zhung period up to the 20th century spanning secular religious and economic history as well as art and archaeology Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 5: Bhutan, 2007-04-30 This illustrated volume presents a wide variety of themes from the historical and modern periods of Bhutan illustrating change and adaptation to new realities Topics covered include the exploration of early history Buddhism and the lives of Bhutanese Buddhist saints the changing role of local non Buddhist religious practitioners in today s society traditional law and the emergence of a modern legal system and the seasonal celebrations of an aristocratic family from central Bhutan The book will be of special interest to students of early Tibetan history legal history comparative sociology and cultural anthropology of the Himalayan regions
