1982 to 1992 Texas banks failed at a rate unprecedented in United States history even including the Great Depression of the 1930s In all 506 Texas commercial banks failed accounting for 36% of all failures nationally including seven of the ten largest banks in Texas In this fascinating insider s account Joseph M Jody Grant former chairman and chief executive officer of Texas American Bancshares Inc of Fort Worth the seventh largest tells the story of the collapse of Texas major banks He vividly re creates the three year struggle to save his own organization Texas American Bancshares This sobering account makes a compelling case against the FDIC s handling of Texas financial crisis In Grant s view the bank failures have deprived Texas of the engine of capital that spawned the nation s third largest industrial economy built Texas major cities bankrolled its entrepreneurs and provided a pool of talented business and civic leaders Grant s book will be thought provoking reading for everyone in the financial community as well as for students of Texas history and of business and government relations
