Text The Genealogy Of An Antidisciplinary Object:

Text John Mowitt, 1992 The concept of textuality in recent decades has come to designate a fundamentally contested terrain within a number of academic disciplines How it came to occupy this position is the subject of John Mowitt's book a critical genealogy of the social and intellectual conditions that contributed to the emergence of the textual object Beginning with the Tel Quel group in France in the sixties and seventies Mowitt's study details how a certain interdisciplinary crisis prompted academics to rethink the conditions of cultural interpretation Concentrating on three disciplinary projects literary analysis film studies and musicology Mowitt shows how textuality's emergence called into question not merely the relations among these disciplines but also the cultural logic of disciplinary reason as such At once an effort to define the text and to explore and extend the theory of textuality this book illustrates why the notion of interdisciplinary research has recently acquired such urgency At the same time by emphasizing the genealogical dimension of the textual object Mowitt raises the issues of its antidisciplinary character and by extension its immediate pertinence for the current debates over multiculturalism and Eurocentrism Innovative historically astute and theoretically informed this important book will be indispensable reading for all scholars in literary and cultural studies History, Theory, Text Elizabeth A.

Clark, 2009-07-01 A historian of early Christianity considers various theoretical critiques to examine the problems and opportunities posed by the ways in which history is written Clark argues for a renewal of the study of premodern Western history through engagement with the critical methods that have transformed other humanities disciplines in recent decades

Book, Text, Medium Garrett Stewart, 2021-01-28 Book Text Medium Cross Sectional Reading for a Digital Age utilizes codex history close reading and language philosophy to assess the transformative arc between medieval books and today's e books It examines what happens to the reading experience in the twenty first century when the original concept of a book is still held in the mind of a reader if no longer in the reader's hand Leading critic Garrett Stewart explores the play of mediation more generally as the concept of book moves from a manufactured object to simply the language it puts into circulation Framed by digital poetics phonorobotics and the rising popularity of audiobooks this study sheds new light on both the history of reading and the negation of legible print in conceptual book art Byron and the Victorians Andrew Elfenbein, 1995-03-30 This book is the first full length study of Byron's influence on Victorian writers concentrating on Carlyle Emily Brontë Tennyson Bulwer Lytton Disraeli and Wilde It has two emphases theoretical and literary historical Its theoretical project is to revise earlier understanding of literary influence through a demonstration of the ways that institutions of cultural production mediate the access that later writers have to earlier ones Its literary historical project is to suggest the many different responses that Victorian writers had to Byron and to his celebrity in British culture It argues that defining oneself against Byron became a ritual of the Victorian authorial career Victorian writers did not reject Byron outright instead they defined themselves through fictions of personal development away from values associated with Byron towards those associated with themselves as mature Victorian writers Turns of Event Hester Blum, 2016-04 American literary studies has undergone a series of field redefinitions that have been described as turns whether transnational aesthetic or affective Turns of Event Nineteenth Century American Literary Studies in Motion argues that the propensity of the field to reinvent itself without dissolution is one of its greatest strengths Offering Theory John Mowitt, 2020-08-04 A reading of Theory that in tracing when and where Theory arises in the event of reading proposes how Theory might best be handled in the context of higher education today Arguing against those who propose to avoid Theory in the name of its putative obsolescence this text sets out to challenge two aspects of this avoidance On the one hand Theory has been set aside in the name of identity politics that is the proposition that its intellectual pertinence has been overshadowed by a sense of political urgency construed as at odds with Theory Theory itself has assumed an identity a profile On the other hand implicit within the avoidance of Theory is a concept of context that calls for reflection Resisting the tendency to treat context as either negligible or obvious this text sets out to trace in the when and where of Theory the rudiments of a sociographic think historiographic account of context In relation to it the reading that is Theory can be usefully situated as part of a politics of higher education in the era of the global crisis of the university A Critical Sense Peter Osborne, 2013-04-15 A Critical Sense brings together in a single volume the leading figures of contemporary radical theory Moving freely between philosophy politics and cultural studies it offers a fascinating overview of the lines of thought of today s intellectual left Marxism feminism psychoanalysis and critical theory literary studies deconstruction pragmatism postcolonial and queer theory are discussed in a series of interviews from the journal Radical Philosophy Those interviewed are Judith Butler Cornelius Castoriadis Drucilla Cornell Axel Honneth Istvan Meszaros Edward Said Renata Salecl Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Cornel West Slavoj Zizek For those unfamiliar with the often daunting work of some of today s most important thinkers A Critical Sense will offer an ideal introduction for those already acquainted with the writings of the theorists interviewed here the collection will throw new and often surprising light on familiar ground Hypertext 3.0 George P. Landow, 2006-02-10 From Intermedia to Microcosm Storyspace and the Web Landow offers information about the kinds of hypertext different modes of linking attitudes toward technology and the proliferation of pornography and gambling on the Internet He also includes new material on developing Internet related technologies Disciplining the Holocaust Karyn Ball, 2008-10-23 Disciplining the Holocaust examines critics efforts to defend a rigorous and morally appropriate image of the Holocaust Rather than limiting herself to polemics about the proper approach to traumatic history Karyn Ball explores recent trends in intellectual history that govern a contemporary ethics of scholarship about the Holocaust She examines the scholarly reception of Goldhagen s Hitler s Willing Executioners the debates culminating in Eisenman s Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in Berlin Lyotard s response to negations of testimony about the gas chambers psychoanalytically informed frameworks for the critical study of traumatic history and a conference on feminist approaches to the Holocaust and genocide Ball's book bridges the gap between psychoanalysis and Foucault's understanding of disciplinary power in order to highlight the social implications of traumatic history BOOK JACKET Information Multiplicity John Johnston, 1998-05-08 In Information Multiplicity Johnston describes how fractalized realism has redefined thought itself from the High Modernist stream of consciousness into what the machine philosopher Daniel Dennett refers to as multiple drafts or circuits operating concurrently in the human brain In a series of close readings Johnston traces how such a viral influx of information into human consciousness has been replicated in works by Thomas Pynchon Gravity's Rainbow and Vineland Joseph McElroy Lookout Cartridge William Gaddis JR Don DeLillo Libra and William Gibson Neuromancer
