The Legend Of New Amsterdam:

The Legend of New Amsterdam, 1979 The Legend of New Amsterdam Peter Spier, 2014-06-30 Describes life in bustling 17th century New Amsterdam and a woman whose seemingly crazy behavior raises an interesting question in light of New York's subsequent development History of the City of New York in the Seventeenth Century Mrs Schuyler Van Rensselaer, Mariana Griswold Van Rensselaer, 2013-01-01 History of the City of New York in the Seventeenth Century Mariana Griswold Van Rensselaer, 2007-04-01 In Volume II of her ambitious 1909 history of New York City Van Rensselaer picks up in 1664 during the reconstruction of New Netherland following its loss to England and goes on to chart the city's changing character as the Dutch and English vie for political and cultural influence Growing by fits and starts this city of only several thousand people is revealed in all its awkward infancy from its early revolts and uprisings through its command by the militia in 1689 1691 This is a fascinating and detailed account perfect for students historians and anyone with an interest in pre Revolutionary New York Devoted to the study of art and architecture American author MARIANA GRISWOLD VAN RENSSELAER 1851 1934 was born in New York City and was an honorary member of the American Institute of Architects In a rare accomplishment for a woman at the time she received a doctorate of literature from Columbia University in 1910 Her other books include English Cathedrals Art Out of Doors and One Man Who Was Content History of the City of New York in the Seventeenth Century Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, 1909 Markets and their Actors in the Late Middle Ages Tanja Skambraks, Julia Bruch, Ulla Kypta, 2020-11-23 Markets feature prominently in recent research of premodern historians as well as economists Discussions cover the questions for example how a market can be grasped as a place an event or a mechanism of exchange or whether premodern economies have just hosted markets or if some of them can even be regarded as market economies The proposed volume will now turn to the agents who forged and connected markets Exchange was done between persons and with the help of persons Artisans retailers and poor people tried to better their living conditions by engaging on the market merchants interconnected different markets urban personnel such as brokers men working at the public scales or the town council as a whole regulated and facilitated exchange By focusing on economic practices and the agents who performed them the volume aims at analyzing the specific characteristics of premodern markets the reasons why people became active on the market and the institutions which formed exchange processes and were in turn shaped by them

God Blew, and They Were Scattered Book II Genevieve Tallman Arbogast, 2006-06-19 Continuing with the saga of the family Taelmann Anglicized to Talman Tallman Tollman Talma etc GOD BLEW AND THEY WERE SCATTERED BOOK II Peters People The Colonial Years the author Genevieve Tallman Arbogast has from extant records laced together events that would have defined the lives of descending generations This narrative begins in Denmark in Schleswig Holstein As the map changes years later with the end of the Thirty Years War 1614 1648 Denmark will be sharing a political life in common with Germany and Sweden as will the formerly independent city state of Hambrough However when the allied families of Talman and de Lichte arrived in Schleswig Holstein it was under the jurisdictional rule of a German prince Duke John Adolphus who would within five years of their arrival ascend to the throne of Scandinavia as Christian IV of Denmark For the purposes of this undertaking however it will suffice to say that Holsteins records then and now can claim a German heritage The allied families of Taelmann and de Lichte arrived in Schleswig Holstein about 1583 following their narrow escape from the Spanish Netherlands Prior to their migration they had been threatened by the rejuvenated Spanish Inquisition revived during the Counter Reformation movement of the Catholic Church in the sixteenth century As disclosed in Book I the Jesuits of that movement were responsible for the burnings of so many so called Protestant heretics that their crimes against humanity have been compared to that of Hitlers modern day holocaust As time elapses the children of the next generation are caught up in the wars of Scandinavia which evolves to eventually draw them into the conflicts of the Thirty Years War As might be expected several members of the Taelmann family are lost on the battlefield As a result the elder Peter Taelmann tries to convince his fourth generation sons to leave Schleswig for opportunities in the New World That begins an adventure for young Peter Taelmann Talman which in 1647 takes him to the Island of Barbados where he accepts a position on Island Plantation under the employ of Philip Hill During his tenure of almost three years in the capacity of physician and apothecary he strives to rehabilitate abused and injured African captives who are being brought to the island by Captain le Blanc the slaver The care for work agreement between the planter and the captain of the Africaneer makes it possible for failing Island Plantation to continue growing tobacco The struggle to return the traumatized victims to health while running a plantation brings many poignant moments introducing such delightful characters as Matilda Prissy and Mingoe Rudie Braithewaite and his wife Evie who operate a tavern on the wharf at Surinam bring color to the narrative as they introduce the young physician to the island and its history before they become victims of the burgeoning slavery business As matters become intense on the island safety for the inhabitants of Island Plantation becomes a concern Mistress Hill urges her husband to return with her and their daughter to their former home in Newport Rhode Island However obsessed with the idea of again making the plantation profitable Hill instead begins to search for backing to convert his cash crop from tobacco to sugar cane Those plans include the development of a shipping service necessary to transport sugar and its by products to the North American mainland for exportation to Europe In the interim the young physician becomes attracted to the planters beautiful daughter and as the attraction is reciprocal Miss Ann manipulates Peter into riding with her to exercise her fathers thoroughbred horses As he is taught the skills of an equestrian many evenings are spent riding along a sandy stretch of beach which separates Island Plantation from the Atlantic Oc

The Theatre ,1912 Fulfilling God's Mission Willem Frijhoff,2007-09-30 This biography recalls the fascinating life of the second Reformed minister of New Amsterdam present day New York Everardus Bogardus a poor but gifted youth who worked himself upward into the ministry The first part of the book provides an in depth analysis of his mystical experience as a 15 year old orphan in his hometown Woerden Holland and its significance in the Dutch context The second part explores Bogardus s agency in the colonial context and his appropriation of his new fatherland as a minister among the Europeans the Native Americans and the blacks as a spokesman of the opposition during Kieft s War and as a colonist married to the famous Anneke Jans This biography is conceived as a mentality history of an early modern male individual Fulfilling God s Mission The Two Worlds of Dominie Everardus Bogardus 1607 1647 has been granted the 2008 Hendrick s Award The Collector ,1891
