Fieldwork: Essays on the Cultural History of Music in Ireland Harry White, 2025-06-03 An absorbing study of the development and reception of musical culture in Ireland by a pioneering and deservedly renowned author This volume is a collection of fourteen essays on the history and reception of Irish music and music in Ireland It addresses three prevailing themes the historiography of Irish music the influence of music on Irish writing and vice versa and the cultural identity and reception of Irish music both domestically and in the world at large Its principal protagonists include Thomas Moore W H Grattan Flood George Moore Edward Martyn Charles Villiers Stanford James Joyce Dora Peja evi Ina Boyle Aloys Fleischmann and Jennifer Walshe These essays also identify and interrogate key questions underpinning a general crisis of reception in relation to Irish music and particularly art music within the domain of Irish studies Fieldwork examines this crisis in the aftermath of The Encyclopaedia of Music in Ireland published in 2013 and a major retrospective of Irish art music Composing the Island curated and presented in 2016 It thereby engages closely with contemporary Irish art music and the challenges which this music has faced in the early decades of the twenty first century This well conceived and beautifully written work testifies to Harry White s central place in the shaping of the discourse surrounding the cultural history of Irish music over the last 40 years White s gift for expression and memorably poetic turns of phrase allows the complexity of ideas and range of historical and literary knowledge examined in these essays to be deftly excavated and evaluated Curiosity provocativeness imagination and literature are threaded through his exploration of how Irish history and experience have been imagined musically

Music Preferred Lorraine Byrne Bodley, 2018-05-28 The contributions to this Festschrift honouring the distinguished Irish musicologist Harry White on his sixtieth birthday have wide repercussions and span a broad timeframe But for all its variety this volume is built around two axes on the one hand attention is focussed on the history of music and literature in Ireland and the British Isles and on the other topics of the German and Austrian musical past In both cases it reflects the particular interest of a scholar whose playful sometimes unconventional way of approaching his subject is so refreshing and time and again leads to innovative surprising insights It also reflects a scholar who for all the broadening of his perspectives that has taken place over the years has always adhered to the strands of his scholarly preoccupations that have become dear to him the music of the Austro Italian Baroque and Irish musical culture first and foremost An international cast of authors announces the sustaining influence of Harry White s wide ranging research Professor Dr Thomas Hochradner Chair of the Department of Musicology University of Music and Dramatic Arts Mozarteum Salzburg
