Essays in Honour of Michael Bliss Elsbeth A. Heaman, Alison Li, Shelley McKellar, 2008-03-22 A leading public intellectual Michael Bliss has written prolifically for academic and popular audiences and taught at the University of Toronto from 1968 to 2006 Among his publications are a comprehensive history of the discovery of insulin and major biographies of Frederick Banting William Osler and Harvey Cushing The essays in this volume each written by former doctoral students of Bliss with a foreword by John Fraser and Elizabeth McCallum do honour to his influence and at the same time reflect upon the writing of history in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The opening essays discuss Bliss s career his impact on the study of history and his academic record Bliss himself contributes an autobiographical essay that strengthens our understanding of the business of scholarship teaching and writing In the second section the contributors interrogate public mythmaking in the relationship between politics and business in eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth century Canada Further sections investigate the relationship between fatherhood religion and historiography as well as topics in health and public policy A final section on Medical Science and Practice deals with subjects ranging from early endocrinology lobotomy the mechanical heart and medical biography as a genre Going beyond a collection of dedicatory essays this volume explores the wider subject of writing social and medical history in Canada in the late twentieth century

The Life and Times of a Black Southern Doctor Gwendolyn Hoff, 2012-03-29 The Life and Times of a Black Southern Doctor or LATOBSD as it will be referred to from here on in this condensation is a saga of life in the panhandle of Florida from 1896 to 1956 and a bit beyond Doctor Alpha Omega Campbell was an actual practicing physician in and around Tallahassee between 1913 and 1956 In 1956 at the age of 67 A O Campbell was convicted of manslaughter in the death of a Jacksonville mother of two after allegedly performing a criminal abortion that eventually results in her dying On in years and eyeing semi retirement he is sent Floridas hardest prison for four of his remaining years LATOBSD begins 1 years into the doctors incarceration at the time of his dear wifes funeral Maggie Lou Campbell did not do well with her husband hundreds of miles away She has been watching their empire of wealth and real estate crumble around her spurred on by numerous jealous conspirators who position themselves like sharks around a school of hapless fish It is from that point backward I transport the reader back in time before Maggie Lou was conceived by her multi racial mother with the help of one of Leon Countys most respected grocers and back when Alfrey A O Campbells family was beholden to a deep rooted plantation owner some called it slavery in the post emancipation south From this time forward I undertake the task of fictionalizing a seemingly unmeasurable share of people and events Most of this recounting of the doctors affairs is true to history used as a guidepost for the seventy some year story line There are many people amongst the ensemble that closely resemble many of those that truly did exist back when the delineation between black and white was beginning to show signs of gray Yet as close as the Campbells pushed that line towards equality a stronger force bludgeoned them back where they belonged As tempting as it was to make this biographical I could not Case in point the considerable liberty taken especially as it applies to the more famous characters I have inserted in this moderately loosely tied account of what really happened If you think historical fiction is tough staying true to events multiply that by two and you have a biography there will always be someone who says That isnt the way it happened So as we traipse our way into the wonderful world of fiction Consider this list of names and events In order of their appearance I The Spanish American War II 25th President William McKinley III The Galveston Hurricane 1900 IV 26th President Theodore Roosevelt V George Eastman sister Judith VI Suffragette Emmeline Pankhurst VII The San Francisco Earthquake 1906 VIII Playwright Sir James Barrie IX World War I X Mary Pickford Early Hollywood XI The Pacific Clipper Flying Boats PanAm XII Roswell New Mexico Area 51 Whoowah Nellie What does any of this have to do with a black Southern doctor you ask That is what makes history fun even if much of this stuff did not come down quite the way I write it I promise to dedicate the 20th chapter to the process of sorting the beef from the bull the inconsistencies you all will gladly point out while reading along as the decades peel away The bottom line is that LATOBSD is not just about the doctor

The Dramatic Life of a Country Doctor Arnold Burden, Andrew Safer, 2014-05-26 A Canadian physician reflects on a lifetime of helping others including during World War II and two deadly mining disasters Dr Arnold Burden's career began unintentionally when he performed his first surgery in the woods following a hunting accident at age fourteen As a twenty year old hospital clerk he handed battle casualties after D Day in France and Germany His early years as a doctor began in rural Prince Edward Island where he served in the combined role of doctor and coroner Back home in Springhill Nova Scotia Dr Burden was the first medic to enter the mines after the deadly No 4 mine explosion in 1956 and the No 2 mine bump the most severe bump ever recorded in North America in 1958 In both cases he risked his life alongside the underground rescue teams to bring the gassed and trapped miners to the surface In this new edition Dr Burden gives his account of an active life and of a man dedicated to his patients a man full of common sense and interesting stories who writes candidly of his dealing with patients unusual cases and brave efforts made under difficult conditions As the author states The real satisfaction in life has come from helping people

Beyond the Mountain Road Francisco Quintero, 2009-03 In the memoir Beyond the Mountain Road the author shares his compelling life story beginning with his birth in a city nestled in the Colombian Andes and continuing with the fascinating details of his journey through a life built on hope faith dreams ambition and love With a warm narrative style Francisco Quintero vividly describes the events that shaped his character and personality He reminisces about his childhood and recounts the difficult years he suffered as a young student following the persecution and destruction of his family due to political reasons As he advances chronologically through his life Dr Quintero offers insight into his adventures in medical school his initial encounters with patients during his hospital training his introduction to the love of his life and the creation of his family His anecdotes some humorous some tragic include details of the family's eventual voyage to the United States where they live the American dream Beyond the Mountain Road is the remarkable true story of a family that was able to overcome obstacles and hardship through courage and determination Above all it is a captivating love story King of the Norfolk Poachers, The: His Life and Times Charlotte Paton,2009-10-01 In the early 1930s an elderly mole catcher became the subject of one of East Anglia's best loved tales of country life I Walked by Night Over sixty years later Norfolk writer Charlotte Paton became fascinated by this man and set out to find the truth about him beginning with his name Frederick Rolfe Charlotte conducted exhaustive research provide a vibrant account with plenty of social history This book is the biography of a difficult man who could inspire devotion but came to a tragic end The Life and Times of Sir Goldsworthy Gurney Dale Porter,1998 Dale H Porter has combined recent research by local Cornish historians with his own investigations of nineteenth century London politics and society to reconstruct Goldsworthy Gurney's remarkable life The Life and Times of Daniel O'Connell Will Fagan,1847 The Life and Times of George Fernandes Rahul Ramagundam,2022-07-25 The Militant Trade Union Leader The Dauntless Political Rebel The Passionate Socialist Dreamer This is a biography of India's George Fernandes George Fernandes 1930 2019 a firebrand trade union leader socialist politician and incredibly powerful orator is popularly known for leading the All India Railwaymen's Federation AIRF in May 1974 and calling upon its approximately 1.7 million employees to strike which brought India to a halt for twenty days Often described as a rebel he pursued every cause he took up with passionate devotion heedless of the many ups and downs in his life From the early years of fighting for the rights of dock and municipal workers of Bombay now Mumbai through the Emergency which he resisted by going underground to his last private decade as a bed ridden Alzheimer's patient his fights were always persistent and single handed George could call Bombay to be shut down and rose from its streets to become India's Defence Minister The Life and Times of George Fernandes chronicles the story of George who rose from the streets of Bombay to stride the corridors of power In this extraordinary biography Rahul Ramagundam opens a window to George's political evolution and traces the course of the Socialist Party in India from its inception in 1930s to its dissolution into the Janata Party in the late 1970s In the process this book explores the trail of India's opposition parties that worked to displace the long ruling Congress Party from its preeminent position Comprehensive evocative and fascinating this first definitive biography of George Fernandes is an unputdownable tour de force Turgenev, His Life and Times Leonard Schapiro,1982 Leonard Schapiro one of the world's most distinguished historians of the Russian past has written the definitive biography of the enigmatic Ivan Turgenev Based on new sources that have recently come to light in France and Russia this work is a graceful and meticulous portrayal of the artist's life the personal and intellectual preoccupations of the man as he thought and formed opinions about contemporary events Schapiro's great achievement is his capacity to make Turgenev's personal political and artistic concerns emerge whole Robert E. Howard Willard M. Oliver,2025-04-15 Robert E Howard 1906 1936 is most widely known today as the creator of Conan the Cimmerian more popularly referred to as Conan the Barbarian However he also wrote across a wide array of genres for the pulp magazines of the 1920s and 1930s including westerns sports stories boxing adventures supernatural horror and even humor Howard also created many other popular characters such as King Kull Bran Mak Morn Solomon Kane Steve Costigan and Breckenridge Elkins More importantly he created two specific subgenres of fiction sword and sorcery sometimes referred to as heroic fantasy and weird westerns Born and raised in Texas Robert E Howard began his writing career after his family settled in the small Central Texas town of Cross Plains His first professional sale came from the pulp magazine Weird Tales in 1925 and over the next eleven years he wrote hundreds of stories and an equal number of poems With this prolific body of stories he was among the most lauded pulp authors of that era It has been said and rightly so that the secret to his success was that there was a bit of Howard in every one of his characters and because Howard was a Texan even Conan shows elements of the Texan in his persona Robert E Howard The Life and Times of a Texas Author details the many trials and tribulations he faced as he became and remained a full time writer while dealing with an aging father and caring for a mother who was dying of tuberculosis The book both chronicles his personal life and demonstrates how the one driving force in Robert E Howard s life forming the foundation for all of his characters and stories was his personal pursuit of freedom He lived for his freedom he wrote as a means to attain that freedom and while it may sound strange he also died tragically by his own hand in that very same pursuit at the young age of 30 The Life and Times of Martin Van Buren William Lyon Mackenzie,1846 The Life and Times of Georg Joachim Goschen, Publisher and Printer of Leipzig, 1752-1828 George Joachim Goschen Goschen (Viscount),1903 The Life and Times of a Country Doctor Douglas Alfred Christensen,1981* Autobiography of a long time physician in Kendrick Idaho The Life and Times of Oliver Goldsmith John Forster,1871 The Life and Times of George Lawson, D.D., Selkirk, Professor of Theology to the Associate Synod : with Glimpses of Scottish Character from 1720-1820 George Macfarlane,1862 Legend of the Third Horseman Charles J. F. Lachelles Wraxall ,2015-02-05 Example i n this ebook If there be a story which may be supposed to be thoroughly familiar to the reading public it is surely that of the Queen of Denmark who is believed to have loved not wisely but too well The fate of Struensee has supplied the motive for countless works more or less historical for novels and even for an opera Hence it might reasonably be assumed that the man who ventured on intruding on the English public another work on such a thoroughly worn out topic must be either very impudent or very foolish and yet I have ventured to do so through neither of these failings but for reasons which have been duly weighed and which appear to my mind to convey their justification The first of these motives is that within a very recent period a perfectly new light has been thrown on the whole affair by permission being granted to examine the privy archives of Copenhagen From these I have been enabled to derive the hitherto unpublished documents and reports of the judges and thus prove on what worthless evidence the divorce of the queen was passed At the same time a great deal of fresh matter has been rendered available about the two unhappy men who fell victims to a mistaken sense of justice The late King of Denmark who wisely thought that publicity was the best safeguard of thrones also allowed the Mmoires de mon Temps of the Landgrave Charles of Hesse Cassel brother in law of Christian VII to be printed for private circulation I have been enabled to procure a copy of this work through the kindness of Baron von Jenssen Tusch who obtained it from the Prince of Augustenburg and the many curious details of the Court of Denmark it contains have been woven largely into my text Another work which has afforded me very material assistance is the Memoirs of Reverdil Secretary to Christian VII which appeared two or three years ago but is little known in this country Lastly the private journals of Sir N W Wraxall have been laid under contribution to a great extent It was made known by the publication of the Post humous Memoirs that he had been connected with the Queen of Denmark but it was only during last year that I discovered how much my grandfather knew of the affair and how well he had kept silence on the subject I have ransacked his journals correspondence c in the interests of the present work and these have enabled me I hope to bring together much not hitherto known or if known forgotten As a humble follower of Lord Macaulay I have also recognised the value of pamphlets and chap books and have been able to obtain with some cost and trouble nearly everything published on the palace revolution during 1772 and 1773 in Germany Denmark and England I have also considered it my duty to consult every work at all connected with the subject and do not think that any one has been omitted Whether it has been in my power to prove the innocence of the Queen of Denmark is a question for my readers to decide I however take some credit to myself for publishing for the first time the letter which she wrote on her death bed to her brother This letter passed through the hands of the late King of Hanover to the Duchess of Augustenburg from whom my copy is derived To be continue in this ebook
