The John Ford Encyclopedia Sue Matheson, 2019-12-02 The winner of four Academy Awards for directing John Ford is considered by many to be America's greatest native born director Ford helmed some of the most memorable films in American cinema including The Grapes of Wrath How Green Was My Valley and The Quiet Man as well as such iconic westerns as Stagecoach My Darling Clementine She Wore a Yellow Ribbon The Searchers and The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance. In The John Ford Encyclopedia Sue Matheson provides readers with detailed information about the acclaimed director's films from the silent era to the 1960s. In more than 400 entries this volume covers not only the films Ford directed and produced but also the studios for which he worked his preferred shooting sites his World War II documentaries and the men and women with whom he collaborated including actors screenwriters technicians and stuntmen. Eleven newly discovered members of the John Ford Stock Company are also included. Encompassing the entire range of the director's career from his start in early cinema to his frequent work with national treasure John Wayne this is a comprehensive overview of one of the most highly regarded filmmakers in history. The John Ford Encyclopedia will be of interest to professors students and the many fans of the director's work.

Dashing to the End Eric Monder, 2015 Born Alfred Reginald John Truscott Jones Welsh American actor Ray Milland 1907-1986 appeared in more than 135 theatrical releases between 1929 and 1985 and on radio television and the stage while also becoming a film director. Milland's extensive canon across such a period is remarkable especially considering his lack of formal training his belated start in show business in his late twenties and the fact he only lived to age seventy-nine. Perhaps best remembered for his Oscar winning performance as the tortured alcoholic in Billy Wilder's The Lost Weekend 1945 or his outstanding collaboration with Alfred Hitchcock in Dial M for Murder 1954 there is much more to Milland's life and career than the few films that elevated him from star to icon. Despite his prolific and successful career Dashing to the End: The Ray Milland Story is the first comprehensive biography of the star. Milland's personal and professional trajectory epitomize quintessential Hollywood lore: the British army soldier turned actor who went from unknown struggling bit player to Oscar winning star to aging scandal haunted has-been to comeback character actor to present day cult figure. Using interviews with Milland's costars and colleagues as well as research from several major archives author Eric Monder brings into sharp relief both the positive and negative aspects of the Hollywood film and television industries and paints a well rounded portrait of this complex man and artist.

It's Our Day Katherine Jellison, 2008 Offers a detailed cultural history of weddings in America from 1945 to 2000 exploring the political social economic and demographic events that influenced the traditions and cost associated with weddings in the post war years.

The Woman Who Pretended to Be Who She Was Wendy Doniger, 2005 Many cultures have myths about self imitation stories about people who pretend to be someone else pretending to be them in effect masquerading as themselves. This great theme in literature and in life tells us that people put on masks to discover who they really are under the masks they usually wear so that the mask reveals rather than conceals the self beneath the self. In this book noted scholar of Hinduism and mythology Wendy Doniger offers a cross cultural exploration of the theme of self impersonation whose widespread occurrence argues for both its literary power and its human value The stories she considers range from ancient Indian literature through medieval European courtly literature and Shakespeare to Hollywood and Bollywood They illuminate a basic human way of negotiating reality illusion identity and authenticity not to mention memory amnesia and the process of aging Many of them involve marriage and adultery for tales of sexual betrayal cut to the heart of the crisis of identity These stories are extreme examples of what we common folk do unconsciously every day Few of us actually put on masks that replicate our faces but it is not uncommon for us to become travesties of ourselves particularly as we age and change We often slip carelessly across the permeable boundary between the un self conscious self indulgence of our most idiosyncratic mannerisms and the conscious attempt to give the people who know us personally or publicly the version of ourselves that they expect Myths of self imitation open up for us the possibility of multiple selves and the infinite regress of self discovery Drawing on a dizzying array of tales some fact some fiction The Woman Who Pretended to Be Who She Was is a fascinating and learned trip through centuries of culture guided by a scholar of incomparable wit and erudition
