The Rosslyn Sessions Heather Holmes,2025-09-21 Rosslyn Chapel the Collegiate Church of St Matthew Roslin is famous throughout the world as an enigma a place of wonder and mystery as well as beauty Especially from the late twentieth century onwards many books have been written on its history and its pseudo history from a wide range of perspectives This book doesn t seek to challenge them or provide a counter argument to them It records the chapel through a series of 101 channelled sessions with it over a period of two years The chapel uses the author as a channel to share its wisdom and guidance It speaks of its purpose and meaning its story and how it relates to the wider universe as well as more universal themes and issues It provides guidance and wisdom to help the author understand it and give insights into her life and personal development The channelled sessions can be used to understand the chapel and its work and as reflection pieces to understand it its wisdom and guidance

Stand in My Window LaTonya Yvette,2024-11-12 Through essays with stunning photography the beloved multimedia storyteller and author of Woman of Color shares the powerful lessons she s learned about creating a home that honors the past and celebrates the future A generous three dimensional portrait that inspires the reader to reflect on their own sense of home and belonging Rio Cortez New York Times bestselling author of The ABCs of Black History Home is a reflection of what we inherit Grappling with the state of the world over the last few years the global pandemic climate change threats to women s rights constant racial violence LaTonya Yvette began to contemplate the concept of home What does it mean to cultivate safety when it is constantly under threat How can we nurture joy and peace within the spaces where we spend most of our precious time Who can we turn to for guidance along the way In Stand in My Window Meditations on Home and How We Make It Yvette explores these kinds of questions as she takes readers through the journey of her own rediscovery of home In eleven meditative essays accompanied by 25 beautiful photographs taken over the course of writing the book Yvette illustrates how the act of homemaking can be revolutionary liberating and one of the most powerful expressions we have of self and community care Woven throughout the book is the story of the nearly 200 year old house in upstate New York that Yvette bought and painstakingly renovated with the aim of creating a safe space for BIPOC communities The house Yvette s ultimate expression of home provides her greatest lessons Both visual feast and emotional salve Stand in My Window demonstrates that home truly is what you make of it in mind body soul and in the thoughtfully curated spaces we can build for ourselves anywhere

London from My Windows Mary Carter, 2015-07-28 Ava Wilder s home in small town Iowa is her sanctuary A talented sketch artist with severe agoraphobia Ava spends her days drawing a far more adventurous life than her invisible disability allows Until she receives a package from London explaining that she has inherited her Aunt Beverly s entire estate on condition that she lives in Bev s West End flat for a year Once overseas Ava wonders if she s simply swapped one prison for another The streets and shops are intimidating and Bev s home appears to be a drop in center for local eccentrics Worst of all Bev left a list of impossible provisos to be overseen by her quirky attractive solicitor Ava is expected to go out to experience clubs pubs and culture to visit Big Ben Hyde Park and the London Eye After years of viewing the world through a pane of glass she s at the messy complicated center of it As exhilarated as she is terrified will she be able to step up step out and claim the life she was meant for In an insightful poignant novel Mary Carter delves deep into self discovery and the meaning of courage exploring the fears that serve to protect us until life calls us to connect at last
