Hussin A.Rothana

The Legitimacy Of The Modern Age:

The Legitimacy of the Modern Age Hans Blumenberg, 1985-10-21 In this major work Blumenberg takes issue with Karl L with s well known thesis that the idea of progress is a secularized version of Christian eschatology which promises a dramatic intervention that will consummate the history of the world from outside Instead Blumenberg argues the idea of progress always implies a process at work within history operating through an internal logic that ultimately expresses human choices and is legitimized by human self assertion by man s responsibility for his own fate

The Legitimacy of Modern Age Hans Blumenberg, 1983 The Immanence of the Infinite Elizabeth Brient, 2002 Most scholars would agree that there is an epochal threshold between the world of the Middle Ages and the modern world Agreement on the nature and dynamic structure of that threshold is harder to come by Hans Blumenberg s original and compelling account of the transition from medieval to modern given in his 1966 work The Legitimacy of the Modern Age has received wide attention Elizabeth Brient begins her own account of the transition with an extensive critical assessment of central aspects of Blumenberg s work She elucidates his dialogical method of historical explanation then discusses the shortcomings of his defense of the legitimacy of modernity The transition to the modern world is marked by the process of making infinite the finite medieval cosmos Whereas Blumenberg focused on the spatial infinitization of the universe Brient claims that the process must be understood intensively as well as extensively In the now infinite universe of the new science the problem of finding a measure for man s self assertive activity and for human knowledge comes to the fore The second half of the book focuses on the way in which this difficulty is addressed with conceptual resources developed in the tradition of late medieval Neoplatonism in particular in the speculative thought of Meister Eckart and Nicholas of Cusa Specific attention is given to the way in which Cusanus notion of the immanence of the infinite in the finite responds to the need for a regulative ideal for human knowing This is the first book length treatment of Blumenberg to appear in English and will be a most welcome resource for readers engaged by debates concerning the status of modernity It will be of equal interest to students of Eckhart and Cusanus and to those generally concerned with the transition between the medieval and the modern world

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Elizabeth Brient is Assistant Professor of philosophy at The University of Georgia PRAISE FOR THE BOOK Blumenberg could not have wished for a more reverent critique of his achievements or a more exacting textual exegesis regarding the sources of their philosophical content all written in a lucid style that is forthright in the defense of the depth of thought during the Middle Ages but also pleasing in its subtle irony with respect to Blumenberg s and the author s own metaphysical creed Walter F Veit Speculum Brient s analysis of Blumenberg s philosophy sheds significant light in the debate concerning modernity Albrecht Classen University of Arizona German Studies Review

Richard Rorty David L. Hall, 1994-01-01 This book is a discussion of the nature and import of Richard Rorty s philosophy particularly as it relates to his reevaluation of American pragmatism Rorty s thinking is assessed within the context of both modern and postmodern intellectual trends and his

thought is contrasted with that of his principal contemporaries in America and Europe including Donald Davidson W V O Quine Jürgen Habermas Michel Foucault Martin Heidegger and Jacques Derrida "The Bold Arcs of Salvation History" Maureen Junker-Kenny, 2022-01-19 This book offers the first in depth treatment in English language of Habermas's long awaited work on religion Auch eine Geschichte der Philosophie published in 2019 Charting the contingent origins and turning points of occidental thinking through to the current postmetaphysical stage the two volumes provide striking insights into the intellectual streams and conflicts in which core components of modern self understanding have been forged The encounter of Greek metaphysics with biblical monotheism has led to a theology of history as salvation expanding in bold arcs from Adam's Fall to Christ and the Last Judgement The reconstruction of key turns in the relationship between faith and knowledge ends however with locating the uniqueness of religion in ritual and defining reason as inherently secular The book exposes the sources and trajectories analysed by Habermas with great erudition to different assessments in biblical studies theology and philosophy of subjectivity Apart from Paul and Augustine key lines of continuity are identified in the Gospels early patristic theology Duns Scotus and Schleiermacher that retain the internal connection of faith to autonomous freedom

The Disclosure of Politics Maria Pia Lara, 2013-08-13 Postmodern political critiques speak of the death of ideology the end of history and the postsecular return of religious attitudes yet radical conservative theorists such as Mark Lilla argue religion and politics are inextricably intertwined Returning much needed uncertainty to debates over the political while revitalizing the very terms in which they are defined Mar a P a Lara explores the ambiguity of secularization and the theoretical potential of a structural break between politics and religion For Lara secularization means three things the translation of religious semantics into politics a transformation of religious notions into political ideas and the reoccupation of a space left void by changing political actors that gives rise to new conceptions of political interaction Conceptual innovation redefines politics as a horizontal relationship between governments and the governed and better enables societies and individual political actors to articulate meaning through action that is through the emergence of new concepts These actions Lara proves radically transform our understanding of politics and the role of political agents and are further enhanced by challenging the structural dependence of politics on religious phenomena Discursive "Renovatio" in Lope de Vega and Calderón Joachim Küpper, 2017-11-07 This volume presents a new approach to Spanish Baroque drama inspired by Foucauldian discourse archeology whose rare fusion of meticulous philology and ambitious theory will be exciting and fruitful both for specialists of Spanish literature and for anyone invested in the history of European thought Detailed readings are dedicated to some of the most prominent plays by Lope de Vega and Calderón de la Barca both autos sacramentales El viaje del alma El divino Orfeo La lepra de Constantino and comedias El castigo sin venganza El príncipe constante El místico de su honra The archeological perspective cast on the plays implies an integration of their discourse historical foils from pagan antiquity through the Middle Ages and the Renaissance as well as a discussion of related discourses mainly theological philosophical and historiographical A separate excursus suggests a reconsideration of the common manner in which the discursive relation between the Middle Ages the Renaissance Mannerism and the Baroque is conceptualized

No Spiritual Investment in the World Willem Styfhals, 2019-05-15 Throughout the twentieth century German writers philosophers theologians and historians turned to Gnosticism to make sense of the modern condition While some saw this ancient Christian heresy as a way to rethink modernity most German intellectuals questioned Gnosticism's return in a contemporary setting In No Spiritual Investment in the World Willem Styfhals explores the Gnostic worldview's enigmatic place in these discourses on modernity presenting a comprehensive intellectual history of Gnosticism's role in postwar German thought Establishing the German Jewish philosopher Jacob Taubes at the nexus of the debate Styfhals traces how such figures as Hans Blumenberg Hans Jonas Eric Voegelin Odo Marquard and Gershom Scholem contended with Gnosticism and its tenets on evil and divine absence as metaphorical detours to address issues of cultural crisis nihilism and the legitimacy of the modern world These concerns he argues centered on the difficulty of spiritual engagement in a world from which the divine has withdrawn Reading Gnosticism against the backdrop of postwar German debates about secularization political theology and post secularism No Spiritual Investment in the World sheds new light on the historical contours of postwar German philosophy

Back to the Rough Grounds of Praxis Daniel Franklin Pilario, 2005 What is praxis How do we do theology from its perspective These are the main questions which this book seeks to answer As propaedeutic to theological reflection it surveys the notion of praxis in the philosophical sociological and anthropological traditions from Aristotle and Marx to contemporary theories It argues that Pierre Bourdieu's theory of practice achieves a critical synthesis of these different traditions making it a viable theological dialogue partner Bourdieu provides us with a praxeological theory to scrutinize the complexity of the social realm and an epistemological theory to understand the mystery of God's presence in these socio historical conjunctures which serve as the privileged and only locus of His/Her revelation The author thus engages two theologians who take praxis/practice as central to their theological methods Clodovis Boff liberation theology and John Milbank radical orthodoxy From the perspective of its appropriated framework this work attempts to avoid the limitations as well as preserves the gains achieved by these two approaches as it also explores the rudiments of a theological method relevant to our post Marxist and postmodern global contexts

Fin de Siècle Socialism and Other Essays (Routledge Revivals) Martin Jay, 2009-11-02 Fin de Siècle Socialism originally published in 1988 demonstrates the lively potential for cultural criticism in intellectual history Martin Jay discusses such controversies as the Habermas/Gadamer debate and the deconstructionist challenge to synoptic analysis This book should be of interest to students and teachers of modern European history political and social theory
