Fin-de-siècle Poem Joseph Bristow, 2005 Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars The Fin de Siecle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siecle poetry the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde s The Picture of Dorian Gray English Verse 1830 - 1890 Bernard Richards, Alastair Fowler, Brian Richards, 2014-09-25 This popular anthology provides a collection of the most significant Victorian verse xxx including some minor figures notably John Clare Emily Bronte and James Thomson Fully annotated this collection contains introductions to individual poets headnotes to the poems and full and informative footnotes It represents Victorian poetic taste at its best and is the ideal companion for everyone interested in poetry of the period Routledge Revivals: English Poetry in the

Later Nineteenth Century (1933) B. Ifor Evans, 2017-11-30 First published in 1933 this study which underwent revision in the 1960s is a comprehensive survey of the verse of English nineteenth century poets whose work appeared after 1860 A special feature is the full and critical treatment of minor writers In no other book is their work so carefully evaluated There is a full account of the minor Pre Raphaelites of James Thomson the poet of The City of Dreadful Night of Henry Stevenson and George MacDonald John Davidson is the subject of a long and revealing study Evans suggests that poetry from the late nineteenth century is neglected in scholarly study and that Victorian Romanticism deserves more attention than it has recently received Paradise Preserved Max F. inspired English life and thought in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The People's Poet Alan Chedzoy, 2011-10-21 Born the child of an agricultural labourer in Dorset's Blackmore Vale by self education William Barnes 1801-1886 rose to be a lawyer's clerk a schoolmaster a much loved clergyman and a scholar who could read over seventy languages He also became the finest example of an English poet writing in a rural dialect In this book Alan Chedzoy shows how uniquely he presented the lives of pre industrial rural people in their own language He also recounts how Barnes's linguistic studies enabled him to defend the controversial notion that the dialect of the labouring people of Wessex was the purest form of English Serving both as an anthology and an account of how the poems came to be written this biography is essential reading for anyone who wants to discover more about the man who in an obituary Thomas Hardy described as probably the most interesting link between present and past life that England possessed The Letters of Alfred Lord

Tennyson: 1821-1850 Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1981 Many years in preparation this first volume of Lang and Shannon's edition of Tennyson's correspondence lives up to all expectations In a comprehensive introduction the editors present not only the biographical background with vivid portrayals of the dramatis personae but also the story of the manuscripts the ones that were destroyed and the many that luckily survived The Tennyson who emerges in this volume is not a serene or Olympian figure He is moody impulsive often reckless now full of camaraderie now plagued by anxiety or resentment deeply attached to close friends and family and uninterested in the social scene His early life is unenviable we see glimpses of the embittered drunken father the distraught mother the swarm of siblings in the rectory at Somersby in Lincolnshire The happiest period is the three years at Cambridge terminated when his father dies and the two years thereafter with Arthur Hallam engaged to his sister and a frequent visitor at their house The shock of Hallam's death in 1833 coupled with the savage attack on Tennyson's poems in the Quarterly Review is followed by depression bouts of alcoholism financial problems and gradually in the 1840s increasing recognition of his work The year 1850 sees the publication of In Memoriam his long deferred marriage at age forty to Emily Selwood and his acceptance not without misgivings of the post of Poet Laureate The editors have garnered and selected a large number of letters to and about Tennyson which supplement his own letters fill in lacunae in the narrative and reveal him to us as his friends and contemporaries saw him Index to the
