

The famous author was a black sheep

James Bond's life often matches the real life of his creator

The world has a strange way of making the life of a man who creates a character match the life of the character.

For Ian Fleming, the creator of James Bond, the match was perfect. The author's life was a black sheep's life, and the life of his creation was a white sheep's life. Fleming was a black sheep in every sense of the word. He was a rebel, a risk-taker, a man who lived on the edge. He was a man who was not afraid to take a chance. He was a man who was not afraid to die. He was a man who was not afraid to live.
