Sea-changes: Melville - Forster - Britten Hanna Rochlitz, 2012 E M Forster first encountered Billy Budd in 1926 Some twenty years later he embarked on a collaboration with Benjamin Britten and Eric Crozier adapting Melville s novella for the opera stage The libretto they produced poignantly reaffirms the Forsterian creed of salvation through personal relationships This study presents an extensive exploration of Forster s involvement in the interpretation transformation and re creation of Melville s text It situates the story of the Handsome Sailor in the wider context of Forster s literary oeuvre his life and his life writings In detailed readings Billy Budd becomes a lens through which the themes patterns and leitmotifs of Forsterian thought and creative imagination are brought into focus A close re examination of the libretto sketches serves to shed new light on the collaborative process in which Melville s story was changed to fit an archetypal array of plot and character types that is central to Forster's own storytelling. A Writer's Eye: Collected Book Reviews Welty, Eudora, 1994 Although she is eminent primarily as the prize winning author of classic works of fiction Eudora Welty is notable also as an astute literary critic Her essays on the art of fiction and on the writers who enlarged the range of the short story and the novel are definitive pieces Her distinguished book reviews along with her critical essays augment her reputation for being one of the most discerning author critics in literary America This collection of her book reviews manifests the connecting of her penetrating eye with her responsive intellect in forming sympathetic judgments of the books she reviewed Between 1942 and 1984 Welty wrote sixty seven reviews of seventy four books Fifty eight of these appeared in the New York Times Book Review and others in the Saturday Review of Literature Tomorrow the Hudson Review the New York Post and the Sewanee Review The reviewed books include novels short story collections books of essays biographies and memoirs books of letters children's books books of ghost stories photography books books of literary criticism and books of World War II art Over nearly half a century she reviewed books by some of the foremost authors of her time Virginia Woolf William Faulkner V S Pritchett Colette Isak Dinesen E B White E M Forster J D Salinger Ross Macdonald Patrick White S J Perelman Annie Dillard Elizabeth Bowen and Katherine Anne Porter A Writer's Eye includes all of Welty's book reviews even one published in the New York Times Book Review under the pseudonym Michael Ravenna Sixteen of the reviews were collected previously in Welty's The Eye of the Story 1978 In this collection Pearl Amelia McHaney's introduction records the history of Welty's career in book reviewing and illuminates the honesty and compassion with which Welty wrote reviews Welty's keen vision her wit and her refined style make these monuments to literature a phrase she wrote in description of Virginia Woolf's essays and reviews an important record of her literary standards and special interests They show as well how book reviewing consumed a large measure of creative time that she customarily devoted to fiction writing Placed beside her authoritative critical essays this volume enhances Welty's considerable literary stature and completes the image of Eudora Welty as a consummate woman of letters The Life to Come E. M. Forster, 2015 Featuring fourteen short stories most previously unpublished The Life to Come spans six decades of E M Forster's writing from approximately 1903 to 1958 and shows Forster at every phase of his writing career Forster feeling his career would suffer never sought publication for most of the stories hiding these away along with Maurice his novel of homosexual love With stories that are lively and amusing What Does It Matter The Obelisk as well as more somber and deft portrayals of love truth and society Dr Woolacott Arthur Snatchfold The Life to Come sheds a light on Forster's powerful but suppressed explorations beyond the strictures of conventional society The Facts on File Companion to the British Short Story Andrew Maunday, 2007 A comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth With approximately 450 entries this A to Z guide explores the literary contributions of such writers as Joseph Conrad James Joyce D H Lawrence Rudyard Kipling Oscar Wilde Katherine Mansfield Martin Amis and others

Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P. Wilper, 2016-02-15 In Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P. Wilper examines a key moment in the development of the modern gay novel by analyzing four novels by German British and American writers Wilper studies how the texts are influenced by and respond and react to four schools of thought regarding male homosexuality in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The first is legal codes criminalizing sex acts between men and the religious doctrine that informs them The second is the ancient Greek erotic philosophy in which a revival of interest took place in the late nineteenth century The third is sexual science or sexology which offered various medical and psychological explanations for same sex desire and was employed variously to defend as well as to attempt to cure this perversion And fourth in the wake of the scandal caused by his trials and conviction for gross indecency Oscar Wilde became associated with a homosexual stereotype based on unmanly behavior Wilper analyzes the four novels Thomas Mann's Death in Venice E. M. Forster's Maurice Edward Prime Stevenson's Imre A Memorandum and John Henry Mackay's The Hustler in relation to these schools of thought and focuses on the exchange and cross cultural influence between linguistic and cultural contexts on the subject of love and desire between men

Re-Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean Yasser Elhariry, Isabelle Keller-Privat, Edwige Tamalet Talbayev, 2025-07-15 Re-Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean examines the embodied praxis of hospitality whether through the ritual modes of religious history the pages of literature the visual arts dystopian narratives of the future or the realpolitik of shelter and asylum It moves beyond dominant transit tropes of aporetic exchange in the lineage of Jacques Derrida The volume offers a fractal view of Mediterranean studies as inflected by the lived aesthetic and philosophical histories of hospitality This book brings together leading voices ranging from early career to established scholars across the social sciences and the humanities to argue for a distinct focus on the Mediterranean pre conditions and pre histories of hospitality To date there has been no interdisciplinary intervention that takes up hospitality as a starting point to critical thinking about Mediterranean studies as an expansive dynamic and ever evolving discipline Against the inescapable backdrop of necropolitics and catastrophe Re-Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean offers a rich agentive alternative for Mediterranean worldmaking

Is There Life Without Mother? Leonard Shengold, 2013-06-17 In this richly textured study of personal growth and creativity hemmed in by childhood disaster Shengold compares the differing gifts and differing solutions of extraordinary talents as they seek to negotiate a universal longing to refind the mother without sliding back into neglect abuse and despair In the foreground of his analysis are moving portraits of Jules Renard and Anthony Trollope and the densely packed traumatic legacy of their respective childhoods the one limned in sustained psychological torture the other framed by neglect and abandonment Long acknowledged as a master of the literary biographic genre within psychoanalysis Shengold does not view the study of creative individuals as the occasion to make pontifical pronouncements about the nature of creativity Rather he sees such study as affording the opportunity to borrow from genius insofar as the gifted writer who is psychologically astute often captures the challenges of life and the nuances of suffering in language that ordinary patients would use if only they could By integrating literary analysis with biographical data Shengold arrives at an appealingly direct demystified approach to great literature as a vehicle for apprehending the intricacies of enduring psychological dilemmas For the solutions of truly creative individuals not only reflect an artistic temperament wed to extraordinarily gifts they illuminate the solutions we are all in search of Elegantly sparing in language and judicious in presenting source material Is There Life Without Mother is abundantly generous in the wealth of understanding it provides and the deeper reflection it provokes From the subtleties of identification as a means of consolidating identity in the face of neglect to the return of the traumatic as a fate that even a writer's literary revenge cannot circumvent this work takes the reader deeper into the wellsprings of personality change than that it is usually possible to go British Authors and Texts C. L.
