Sisters Of Dust Sisters Of Spirit A Creation Centered Womanist Spirituality:

Sisters of Dust, Sisters of Spirit Karen Baker-Fletcher, 1997-12-01 Karen Baker Fletcher cultivates the earthy potential of black womanism In her rich prose and poetry she combines reflection on her own journey with a keen awareness of environmental racism and a constructive religious vision She seeks to recover and renew the strong historic tie of black and native peoples to the land often broken by migration and urbanization And she deftly tills the biblical and literary metaphors of dust and spirit to address the embodiment of God Spirit Christ creation and humans seeding a powerful justice oriented spirituality of creation Its earnest reflective character makes this small volume ideal for individual adult study or classroom use by all who wish to grow closer to the earth and to God

My Sister, My Brother Karen Baker-Fletcher, Garth Baker-Fletcher, 2002-06-19 This fresh new approach to African American theology brings two creative theologians into a lively dialogue between womanist and Xodus thought Karen Baker Fletcher writes from the perspective of womanism reflecting the interlocking issues of sex class and race that characterize the experience of African American women Garth KASIMU Baker Fletcher writes from the perspective of what he has termed Xodus theology With a name that resonates with reference both to the Exodus story the Cross and the self naming identity of Malcolm X Xodus reflects the perspective of a new generation of Black theology by males who have responded among other things to the challenges of womanist theology In successive chapters based on core themes of theology each author lays out his or her position They then engage in mutual critique and dialogue Both authors draw widely on the Bible and traditional theology as well as incorporating elements from both African and African American religious and cultural expression from the novels of Toni Morrison and Alice Walker to rap and hip hop My Sister My Brother weaves a bright theological tapestry that integrates female and male experience traditional and contemporary perspectives in an African American theology that promotes survival resistance healing liberation and transcendence
