Drops_of_Nightshade

Summary:

Harry is removed from the Dursley family when he is eight years old, and enters the wizarding world a few years younger and a lot wiser. He discovers a surprising dark heritage, and develops goals that do not involve vanquishing a certain Dark Lord or becoming the Chosen One. So Dark A Heritage:

A Heritage of Hate Charles Garvice, 1899 Competing Values in Archaeological Heritage Stuart Campbell, Liz White, Suzie Thomas, 2018-09-22 Archaeological heritage legislation aims to ensure the best possible protection for the archaeological heritage yet it remains the case that legislation can remain ineffective through other practical considerations Some consideration may be legal or procedural such as difficulties in enforcing legislation or in preventing crimes or damage or archaeological monuments However other problems may be less obvious and harder to address and require solutions which go much further than the simple application of the law The aim of this volume is to address several issues surrounding the management of archaeological heritage comparing and contrasting which laws work and which ones do not and ignoring other issues which might effectively present the transplantation of an ideal system to another country or political climate Or the cultural attitudes which might prevent a law working in the legal system for which it was designed The contributions are from various international jurisdictions and address a variety of subjects from the protection of archaeological monuments to dealing with and controlling chance finds made by members of the public A Bitter Heritage. A Modern Romance John Bloundelle-Burton, 1899 The Heritage of Langdale Mrs. Alexander, 1877 Sacred Heritage Roberta Gilchrist, 2020-01-02 Forges innovative connections between monastic archaeology and heritage studies revealing new perspectives on sacred heritage identity medieval healing magic and memory This title is available as Open Access Destination Dixie Karen L. Cox, 2018-03-15 Once upon a time it was impossible to drive through the South without coming across signs to See Rock City or similar tourist attractions From battlegrounds to birthplaces and sites in between heritage tourism has always been part of how the South attracts visitors and defines itself yet such sites are often understudied in the scholarly literature As the contributors to this volume make clear the narrative of southern history told at these sites is often complicated by race influenced by local politics and shaped by competing memories Included are essays on the meanings of New Orleans cemeteries Stone Mountain Georgia historic Charleston South Carolina Yorktown National Battlefield Selma Alabama as locus of the civil rights movement and the homes of Mark Twain Margaret Mitchell and other notables Destination Dixie reveals that heritage tourism in the South is about more than just marketing destinations and filling hotel rooms it cuts to the heart of how southerners seek to shape their identity and image for a broader touring public now often made up of northerners and southerners alike The Heritage of Cain Isabel Ostrander, 1916 Children, Young People and Dark Tourism Mary Margaret Kerr, Philip R Stone, Rebecca H. Price, 2022-08-31 This book is the first its kind to offer an innovative examination of the intersecting influences contexts and challenges within the field of children s dark tourism It also outlines novel conceptualizations and methods for scholarship in this overlooked field Presently tourism research and in dark tourism specifically relies primarily on adult centered theories and data collection methods However these approaches are inadequate for understanding and developing children s experiences and perspectives This book seeks to inform and inspire research on children's experiences of dark tourism. Designed to appeal to students and scholars, it brings together insights from leading experts. The book focuses on five themes to explore the conceptual and historic origins of children's dark tourism, developmental contexts, child perspectives, specific contexts relevant to children's encounters, and methodological approaches. This book is aimed at an international array of scholars and students with inherent research interests in the contemporary commodification of death and difficult heritage within the visitor economy. Thus, the book will provide a multi-disciplinary scope within the fields of history, heritage studies, childhood studies, psychology, education, sociology, human geography, and tourism studies. The volume is primarily intended for undergraduate and postgraduate study as well as scholars and tourism professionals.

So Dark a Heritage Frank Belknap Long, 1966 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Superdiversity Angela Creese, Adrian Blackledge, 2018-02-21 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Superdiversity provides an accessible and authoritative overview of this growing area: the linguistic analysis of interaction in superdiverse cities. Developed as a descriptive term to account for the increasingly stratified processes and effects of migration in Western Europe, superdiversity has the potential to contribute to an enhanced understanding of mobility, complexity, and change with theoretical, practical, global, and methodological reach. With seven sections edited by leading names, the handbook includes 35 state-of-the-art chapters from international authorities. The handbook adopts a truly interdisciplinary approach covering Cultural heritage, Sport, Law, Education, Business, and entrepreneurship. The result is a truly comprehensive account of how people live, work, and communicate in superdiverse spaces. This volume is key reading for all those engaged in the study and research of Language and Superdiversity within Applied Linguistics, Linguistic Anthropology, and related areas.

An Archaeology of the Troubles Laura McAtackney, 2014 This volume reveals the seminal role of material culture in understanding the Long Kesh Maze prison during the course of the Troubles in Northern Ireland, continuing into the peace process. Using a multitude of sources, it provides an interpretation of the Troubles and the continuing destabilizing role of material remnants of the conflict.

Untangling a Red, White, and Black Heritage Darnella Davis, 2018-11 Examining the legacy of racial mixing in Indian Territory through the land and lives of two families, one of Cherokee Freedman descent and one of Muscogee Creek heritage, Darnella Davis's memoir writes a new chapter in the history of racial mixing on the frontier. It is the only book-length account of the intersections between the three races in Indian Territory and Oklahoma, written from the perspective of a tribal person and a freedman. The histories of these families, along with the starkly different federal policies that molded their destinies, offer a powerful corrective to the historical narrative. From the Allotment Period to the present, their claims of racial identity and land in Oklahoma reveal inequalities that still fester more than one hundred years later. Davis offers a provocative opportunity to unpack our current racial discourse and ask ourselves: Who are we really?

Landscapes of Difficult Heritage Gustav Wollentz, 2020-11-21 This book studies how people negotiate difficult heritage within their everyday lives, focusing on memory, belonging, and identity. The starting point for the examination is that temporalities lie at the core of understanding this negotiation and that the connection between temporalities and difficult heritage remains poorly understood and theorized in previous research In order to fully explore the temporalities of difficult heritage the book investigates places in which the incident of violence originated within different time periods It examines one example of modern violence Mostar in Bosnia and Herzegovina one example of where the associated incident occurred during medieval times the Gazimestan monument in Kosovo and one example of prehistoric violence Sandby borg in Sweden The book presents new theoretical perspectives and provides suggestions for developing sites of difficult heritage and will thus be relevant for academic researchers students and heritage professionals
