

THE HISTORY OF SCOTLAND

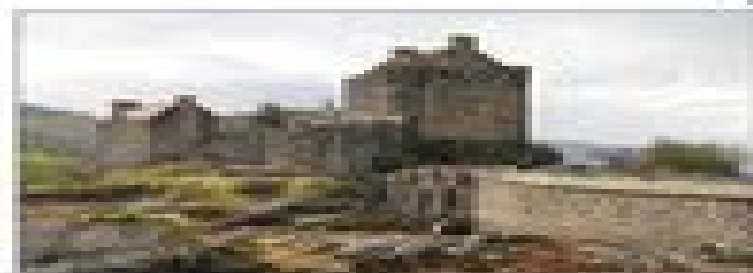

Scotland is a country rich in history and traditions. It is known for its beautiful scenery, bagpipe music, kilts and more. Over time, Scotland has been invaded and settled by many different people. They have left an influence on their culture and traditions.

During ancient times, Scotland was home to various Celtic tribes. They were good at farming and taking care of animals like cows and sheep. The Celts were also skilled in working with metal and made things like swords, helmets, and jewellery.

The Vikings, who came from Norway, also left their mark in the country. They settled in Scotland, bringing their language, culture, and way of life. They created villages and ruled parts of Scotland for more than 300 years. However, the Scots won the Battle of Largs in 1263, which marked the end of the Viking presence in this country.

Scotland had to fight for its freedom for a very long time, especially against England.

In the 13th century, there were the Wars of Scottish Independence. In 1296, the king of England invaded Scotland and declared himself king, starting the First War. The war ended with a treaty signed in 1328, which allowed Scotland to stay free.
