Jong S. Jun,2012-02-01 In this conceptual guided tour of contemporary public administration Jong S Jun challenges the limitations of the discipline which he argues make it inadequate for understanding today s complex human phenomena Drawing on examples and case studies from both Eastern and Western countries he emphasizes critical and interpretive perspectives as a counterforce to the instrumental technical rationality that reduces the field to structural and functionalist views of management He also emphasizes the idea of democratic social construction to transcend the field s reliance on conventional pluralist politics Jun stresses that public administrators and institutions must create opportunities for sharing and learning among organizational members and must facilitate interactive processes between public administrators and citizens so that the latter can voice their problems and opinions The future role of public administrators will be to transcend the limitations of the management and governing of modern public administration and to explore ways of constructing socially meaningful alternatives through communicative action and the participation of citizens Playing with Scripture

Andrew Judd,2024-01-22 This book puts a creative new reading of Hans Georg Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics and literary genre theory to work on the problem of Scripture Reading texts as Scripture brings two hermeneutical assumptions into tension that the text will continually say something new and relevant to the present situation and that the text has stability and authority over readers Given how contested the Bible s meaning is how is it possible to read Scripture as authoritative and relevant Rather than anchor meaning in author text or reader Gadamer s phenomenological model of hermeneutical experience as Spiel play offers a dynamic intersubjective account of how understanding happens avoiding the dead end of the subjective objective dichotomy Modern genre theory addresses some of the criticisms of Gadamer accounting for the different roles played by readers in different genres using the new term Lesespiel reading game This is tested in three case studies of contested texts the recontextualization of psalms in the book of Acts the use of Hagar s story Genesis 16 in nineteenth century debates over slavery and the troubling reception history of the rape and murder in Gibeah Judges 19 In each study the application of ancient text to contemporary situation is neither arbitrary nor slavishly bound to tradition but playful
