Estate Management and Symposium Xenophon, 2022-05-16 Xenophon was acknowledged in Antiquity as a philosopher a historian third in the triad of great Classical historians alongside Herodotus and Thucydides and a literary artist His narrative was appreciated for its literary qualities including its charm wit vigour and sweetness for which he was hailed as Attic Muse Diogenes Laertius 2 6 57 The Oeconomicus describes Socrates conversing on the topic of successful management of one's oikos household estate The focus is a well to do Athenian household which proves a testing ground for the moral qualities or gentlemanliness of the male head of household but also a space in which the role and agency of women turns out to be key Symposium shifts to the male space of the men's quarters of the private home to describe an evening of conversation and entertainment at the house of an Athenian plutocrat Far from being simply a lighthearted affair the conversation probes timeless questions regarding wisdom love and female capacity and over it looms the deadly serious matter of Socrates trial and death Both works are rich sources for Athenian social history of the Classical period Oeconomicus in particular offers insights on the role and status of women in Ancient Athens Xenophon doesn't however passively reflect the social realities he saw around him or supply snapshots of historical actuality
