Sister To Scheherazade:

A Sister to Scheherazade Assia Djebar, 1987 The story of how Isma and Hajila wives of the same man escape from the traditional restraints imposed upon the women of their country Algeria Cuts Ranjana Khanna, 2008 Algeria Cuts discusses the figure of woman both under colonial rule in Algeria and within the postcolonial independent nation state It is an interdisciplinary project that spans fine art film colonial and legal policy manifestos prose fiction and theoretical and philosophical texts concerning the relationship between France and Algeria Khanna investigates gendered representation identification and justice and in the process calls into question the ways in which conventional disciplinary frameworks foreclose certain avenues of reflection while foregrounding others Algeria Cuts seeks to understand Algeria and Algerian women as a philosophical site that facilitates an understanding of justice and the pursuit of feminism Scheherazade's Sisters Marilyn Jurich, 1998-08-20 Based on the author's discovery of a new folktale type the female trickster Jurich's book identifies and celebrates those female protagonists in folktales who use trickery to save themselves and others to find new directions for their lives and to declare their individual autonomies especially in societies that diminish and oppress women Through creative strategies depending on verbal facility psychological acuity and diplomatic know how these women tricksters better named trickstars uncover the absurdity hypocrisy and corruption in the larger patriarchal society Through the trickstar's efforts the system is circumvented or foiled often enlightened and usually improved This multicultural comparative study reveals universal human traits as well as gender differences between female and male tricksters and realizes the values and attitudes which shape the trickstar's character and behavior Trickstars also appear outside of the oral folktale tradition the author discusses their roles in contemporary feminist revisionist tales as well as in mythology biblical narratives Shakespearean comedy novels plays and opera How the female trickster differs from her male counterpart is for the first time in folklore studies illustrated through a comparison of their functions in the narrative scheme of the tale These functions include the diverting or amusing role the morally ambiguous or reprehensible role the role of the manipulator or strategist and the role of the transformer or culture bringer who reforms and improves the nature of her society Jurich delineates the specific types of tricksters who perform these functions suggests how trickstar tales variously affect listeners and readers and shows how particular types of trickstar characters contribute to the intent of the tale Feminist views of the protagonists are analyzed as well as contemporary revisionist tales which seek to reverse negative female images and to present independent women characters who can and do make positive contributions to society For the first time in folklore studies both female and male tricksters are defined and differentiated their functions are illustrated through analyzing narrative schemes and the term trickstar invented by the author is used to define and describe a female trickster Gender and Identity in North Africa Abdelkader Cheref, 2010-08-30 Literary fiction has always provided an outlet for social and political critique In the writing of key North African women authors the dissection of Maghrebi society is at the very heart of the narratives Here Abdelkader Cheref charts the rise of postcolonial literature written by women from the Maghreb and provides the first comparative analysis of three of the region's most prominent contemporary authors Assia Djebar Algeria Leila Abouzeid Morocco and Souad Guellouz Tunisia These writers are united in their depictions of a post independence socio political malaise in the Maghreb their explorations of marginalised women's voices and their own quests for their voices to be heard beyond the rigid constraints of patriarchy This book is essential comparative reading for students and researchers wishing to understand the connections between literature history and culture in postcolonial North Africa Scheherazade's Night Out Craig Shaw Gardner, 2021-09-25 Attend beloved listeners to the tale of Scheherazade whose magical stories are her only defense against mad kings evil djinn and an unspeakable mother in law For truly it will take a silver tongue to save a pretty neck From New York Times bestselling author Craig Shaw Gardner the rollicking conclusion to his outrageous Sinbad series The other Sinbad Ali Baba Aladdin and friends are trapped in an enchanted cavern But the fearless heroes soon find their way into the Palace of Beautiful Women where they meet Queen Scheherazade whose husband has the nasty habit of cutting off his wives heads Directing the Story Francis Glebas, 2012-10-12 Francis Glebas a top Disney storyboard artist shows how to reach the ultimate goal of animation and moviemaking by showing how to provide audiences with an emotionally satisfying experience Directing the Story offers a structural approach to clearly and dramatically presenting visual stories With Francis help you'll discover the professional storytelling techniques which have swept away generations of moviegoers and kept them coming back for more You'll also learn to spot potential problems before they cost you time or money and offers creative solutions to solve them Best of all it practices what it preaches using a graphic novel format to demonstrate the professional visual storytelling techniques you need to know The Mind Electric Priya Anand, 2025-06-10 In this collection of medical tales reminiscent of Oliver Sacks the best of medical writing Abraham Verghese author of The Covenant of Water a neurologist reckons with the stories we tell about our brains and the stories our brains tell us A girl believes she has been struck blind for stealing a kiss A mother watches helplessly as each of her children is replaced by a changeling A woman is haunted each month by the same four chords of a single song In neurology illness is inextricably linked with narrative the clues to unraveling these mysteries hidden in both the details of a patient's story and the tells of their body Stories are etched into the very structure of our brains coded so deeply that the impulse for storytelling survives and even surges after the most devastating injuries But our brains are also porous the stories they concoct shaped by cultural narratives about bodies and illness that permeate the minds of doctors and patients alike In the history of medicine some stories are heard while others the narratives of women of Black and brown people of displaced people of disempowered people are too often dismissed In The Mind Electric neurologist Priya Anand reveals through case study history fable and memoir all that the medical establishment has overlooked the complexity and wonder of brains in health and in extremis and the vast gray area between sanity and insanity doctor and patient and illness and wellness each separated from the next by the thin veneer of a different story Moving from the Boston hospital where she treats her patients to her childhood years in India to Isla Providencia in the Caribbean and to the Republic of Guinea in West Africa she demonstrates again and again the compelling paradox at the heart of neurology that even the most peculiar symptoms can show us something universal about ourselves as humans
