Sisyphus Or The Limits Of Education:

Sisyphus Siegfried Bernfeld,1973-01-01 Sisyphus or The Limits of Education Siegfried Bernfeld,1973

Sisyphus : Or, The Limits of Education J. H. Karchmer,1973 Sisyphus Siegfried Bernfeld,1973 Albert Camus and Education Aidan Hobson,2017-03-22 This book continues the story about education and the absurd Its specific focus is on the work of Albert Camus It tries to summarise the ways in which his writing has already inspired and influenced educational thinking and practice and it offers a new set of educational interpretations of six of his major works These set out the exciting challenge about how we might think about the purposes and practices of education in the future how to talk about these plan and deliver Using the work of Albert Camus in this way is an attempt to bring him and his ideas closer to educational discussions This is a deliberate attempt to show the synergy between some of his major concepts and those that are already cornerstones of educational discourses Read from an educational perspective the work of Albert Camus also provides guidance and invigorates the imagination as to how education can respond to those increasingly complex existential crises it finds itself connected to For educational people interested in these questions this book will hopefully motivate a re reading of Camus and a brave new lens on practice International Handbook of Jewish Education Helena Miller,Lisa D. Grant,Alex Pomson,2011-04-02 The International Handbook of Jewish Education a two volume publication brings together scholars and practitioners engaged in the field of Jewish Education and its cognate fields world wide Their submissions make a significant contribution to our knowledge of the field of Jewish Education as we start the second decade of the 21st century The Handbook is divided broadly into four main sections Vision and Practice focusing on issues of philosophy identity and planning the big issues of Jewish Education Teaching and Learning focusing on areas of curriculum and engagement Applications focusing on the ways that Jewish Education is transmitted in particular contexts both formal and informal for children and adults Geographical focusing on historical demographic social and other issues that are specific to a region or where an issue or range of issues can be compared and contrasted between two or more locations This comprehensive collection of articles providing high quality content constitutes a definitive statement on the state of Jewish Education world wide as well as through a wide variety of lenses and contexts It is written in a style that is accessible to a global community of academics and professionals The Possibility/Impossibility of a New Critical Language in Education ,2010-01-01 The critique of Critical Pedagogy in its current various trends and paths teaches me not only the shortcomings of various versions of Critical Pedagogy No less important it offers an invitation to a reflection on the limitations costs and open horizons of critique itself It is an invitation to transcend critique as such But what alternative do we have and from where or with what ears might we listen to the music of the new call What is it that awaits us outside the critical tradition that in an unproblematic manner we could use internalize or surrender ourselves to Such questions reintroduce us to Utopia They reintroduce us to the Utopia of the possibility of happiness of the kind that is neither made possible nor advocated by self abandonment and enslavement destruction of the otherness of the Other and the I This book manifests a refusal to abandon Critical Theory's telos it offers no solutions victories of the oppressed and emancipation neither does it promise peace and unproblematic consensus On the contrary all the eternal open Diasporic individual can hope for is worthy Diasporic Love of Life creativity mature forms of togetherness and eternal nomadism as a manifestation of co poiesis Understanding the Britzman, 2012-02-01 In After Education Deborah P Britzman raises the startling question What is education that it should give us such trouble She explores a series of historic and contemporary psychoanalytic arguments over the nature of reality and fantasy for thinking through the force and history of education Drawing from the theories of Anna Freud and Melanie Klein she analyzes experiences of difficult knowledge pedagogy group psychology theory and questions of loneliness in learning education Throughout the book education appears and is transformed in its various guises as a nervous condition as social relation as authority as psychological knowledge as quality of psychical reality as fact of natality as the thing between teachers and students as an institution and as a play between reality and fantasy Erich Fromm and Critical Criminology Kevin Anderson, Richard Quinney, 2000 Linking the writings of the great humanist psychologist Erich Fromm to criminology this collection shows how viewing crime patterns and the criminal justice system from Fromm's humanist perspective opens a path to more effective and more humane ways of understanding and dealing with crime and criminals Contributors to Erich Fromm and Critical Criminology draw on Fromm's writings on alienation sadomasochism and patriarchal matriarchal values to assess the kinds of crimes being committed and the kinds of people committing them They explore the spiritual and intellectual sources of Fromm's thought including Jewish theology Freudian psychoanalysis Marxism and Buddhism and demonstrate how his socialist humanism points toward a society free of crime and violence This volume also includes translations of two of Fromm's early articles on criminal justice never before available in English in which he develops a psychoanalytic Marxist critique of the role of criminal justice in a class society At a time when American society seems bent to an unprecedented degree on imprisonment executions and other violent responses to the problem of crime Fromm's humanist critique offers a unique vantage point from which to renew and develop a critical criminology Remembrance - Responsibility - Reconciliation Lothar Wigger, Marie
