Abstracting the Landscape Eliza Pennypacker, Kristi Ann Wormhoudt, 1990      Growing Green Infrastructure in Contemporary Asian Cities Ian Mell, 2024-08-27 Growing Green Infrastructure in Contemporary Asian Cities examines to what extent green infrastructure GI is being implemented in East and Southeast Asian cities The book reflects upon the integration of contemporary approaches to landscape planning alongside traditional forms of green space design and cultural understandings of the landscape in China Hong Kong Japan Singapore and South Korea Working from a multi locational perspective the book illustrates how political socio cultural economic and ecological factors influence the delivery of GI and the consequences of these decisions The book provides a set of best practice recommendations for the design development and management of greener urban areas It both explains how GI is being utilised in East and Southeast Asia to address climate change promote economic prosperity and support the development of more livable places and identifies future trends in its use It is a key resource for any practitioners students and academics working in landscape planning and green infrastructure in an Asian context      Re-inventing Gardens Kyung-Jin Zoh, 1994      Landscape Architecture in the Modern World Karl Baptiste Lohmann, 1941      San Diego Artists Robert Perine, I. Andrea, 1988      Dictionary of Today's Landscape Designers Pierluigi Nicolin, Francesco Repishti, 2003 The aim of the book is to illustrate the different ways of understanding landscape creating a dictionary that can convey not just the scope of the designing processes and their related actors but to provide a first key for interpreting the various approaches to this discipline that has given rise to an entirely new dimension in designing the cityscape turning the open space of the city into a space for art and sculpture for garden and architecture and into a new field for cultural activity It documents the surprising extent of the planning experience and profiles world renowned architects engineers landscape architects artists and photographers It also provides the reader with a key interpretation of the different approaches to an experience that has introduced a new dimension in the physical transformation of our environment The dictionary features leading figures from the international scene including Tadao Ando Emilio Ambasz Daniel Buren Tony Cragg Walter de Maria Michael Heizer Nancy Holt Toyo Ito Anish Kapoor Rem Koolhaas Maya Lin Richard Long and James Turrell to name a few Over the last decade the concept of landscape has dramatically changed References to the discipline of landscape architecture can be found in urban planning in projects that reconstruct large disused areas in the design of public spaces parks and private gardens in Land Art and in photography This field has come to greater prominence with the increase in public projects and by keeping pace with new theoretical approaches and design practices This volume will be an invaluable reference for anyone involved in urban planning public art landscape architecture and landscape design

The Western Architect ,1908 Landscape and Authority in the Early Modern World Stephen H. Whiteman,2023-04-25 Courts and societies across the early modern Eurasian world were fundamentally transformed by the physical technological and conceptual developments of their era Evolving forms of communication greatly expanded mobility the spread of scientific knowledge and the emergence of an increasingly integrated global economy all affected how states articulated and projected visions of authority into societies that in turn perceived and responded to these visions in often contrasting terms Landscape both reflected and served as a vehicle for these transformations as the relationship between the land and its imagination and consumption became a fruitful site for the negotiation of imperial identities within and beyond the precincts of the court In Landscape and Authority in the Early Modern World contributors explore the role of landscape in the articulation and expression of imperial identity and the mediation of relationships between the court and its many audiences in the early modern world Nine studies focused on the geographical areas of East and South Asia the Islamic world and Europe illuminate how early modern courts and societies shaped and were shaped by the landscape including both physical sites such as gardens palaces cities and hunting parks and conceptual ones such as those of frontiers idealized polities and the cosmos The collected essays expand the meaning and potential of landscape as a communicative medium in this period by putting an array of forms and subjects in dialogue with one another including not only unique expressions such as gardens paintings and manuscripts but also the products of rapidly developing commercial technologies of reproduction especially print The volume invites a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the complexity with which early modern states constructed and deployed different modes of landscape for different audiences and environments Contributors Robert Batchelor Seyed Mohammad Ali Emrani John Finlay Caroline Fowler Katrina Grant Finola O Kane Anton Schweizer Larry Silver Stephen H Whiteman
