Fading from Memory Mike Pritchard, 2013-10-23 Fading From Memory is a son's personal journal covering the period 2006-2009 during which his parents are first diagnosed with and eventually succumb to Alzheimer's disease The journal follows the family's responses to the progressively more desperate needs of their parents with humour insight compassion exasperation enterprise and finally resignation This book paints a raw honest but at times also heartwarming picture of what really happens when Alzheimer's strikes twice The author exhibits a deep and natural curiosity about what is happening to his parents' minds how they came to be as they are what steps can be taken to alleviate their troubles and what choices the family has available As fast as problems come at them the family put up solutions until eventually they can do no more Throughout this very testing time suffered by all the family the author s humour enables him and the reader to step back and take stock refresh the spirit and return to the battle renewed
