Kent Hughes,2004-10-26 The book of Genesis contains some of the most beautiful and well known stories in the Bible the garden the flood the tower of Babel and the lives of the patriarchs But these are more than just good stories They lay the groundwork for God s relationship with humanity and for his plan for our salvation making Genesis foundational to understanding everything else that happens in the Bible Genesis reveals much about human nature and the nature of God From the actions of the first man and woman we see where our rebellious sinful nature originates And through the whole book we see the hand of a sovereign God who is loving and merciful but also just and holy Time and again in Genesis God showers his grace upon undeserving humanity giving us our first tastes of God s enduring faithfulness that shines throughout the entire Bible R Kent Hughes respected pastor and author of many other commentaries in the Preaching the Word series takes readers back to the beginning of the Bible and moves through Genesis with careful exegesis He explores the superbly crafted structure of the book as well as the weighty themes it contains For those who preach teach and study God s Word this exceptionally detailed work will reveal much about the beginnings of God s great story Part of the Preaching the Word series     A Historical Perspective on Light Infantry Scott Ray McMichael,1987 This study seeks to clarify the nature of light infantry General characteristics of light infantry forces are identified and an analysis of how light forces operate tactically and how they are supported is presented In the process the relationship of the light infantry ethic to its organization is evaluated and the differences between light infantry and conventional infantry is illuminated For the purpose of this study the term conventional infantry refers to modern day motorized and mechanized infantry and to the large dismounted infantry forces typical of the standard infantry divisions of World War II the Korean War and the Vietnam War The study concludes that light infantry is unique and distinct A light infantry ethic exists and manifests itself in a distinctive tactical style in a special attitude toward the environment in a freedom from dependence on fixed lines of communication and in a strong propensity for self reliance The study is based on a historical analysis of 4 light infantry forces employed during and since World War II The Chindits in the 1944 Burma campaign against the Japanese The Chinese communist Forces during the Korean War British operations in Malaya and Borneo 1948 66 and the First Special Service Force in the mountains of Italy 1942 44 p 2 of cover     Army JROTC Leadership Education & Training United States.
