Snuff-bottles and Other Stories Youmei Deng, 1986 Worlds Apart Howard Goldblatt, 2024-12-06 Thirteen selected papers from an international conference on contemporary Chinese literature held near Gunzburg Bavaria in June July 1986 constitute both a record of literary writings from the PRC Hong Kong and Taiwan as well as an overview of the broader international role of Chinese writing in translation Translating Chinese Fiction Tan Yesheng, 2024-06-28 Drawing on the cognitive translational paradigm this book introduces a situation embedded cognitive construction model of translation and explores the thinking portfolios of British and American sinologists cum translators to re-examine their multiple voices and cognition in translating Chinese fiction By placing sinologists cum translators in the same discourse space the study transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross-validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross-cultural communication scenarios Based on the cognitive construction model of translation the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions narrative styles contextual and cultural frames readership categories and metaphorical models of translation It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators' cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics literary studies and intercultural communication studies Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers Laifong Leung, 2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first-hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies Rendering the Regional Edward M. Gunn, 2006-01-01 For centuries the sub-national languages of China have been a fundamental feature in daily life and popular culture while a standardized form of Mandarin has been adopted as the language of the state including education Suppressed during powerful movements to establish a modern national culture these local languages or dialects have nevertheless survived and their resurgence in the media and literature has caused tensions to surface Concerns for education law and commerce have all promoted a standard national language yet at the same time as local societies have undergone massive transformations the need to re imagine communities has repeatedly challenged the adequacy of a single language to represent them Moreover local languages have been presented in dramatically different and conflicted roles as symbols of the failure to assimilate to a cultural mainstream which in turn may be parodied as contingent and inadequate or asserting the identity of a community as a site of its own cultural production and not merely as a venue for transmitting a national culture Acknowledging local language as authentic may also reveal cultural hegemonies within regions and contested versions of communities This ground breaking study surveys in detail the sweep of local languages in television radio film and print culture of late twentieth century mainland China especially Beijing Shanghai Chongqing and Chengdu Hong Kong and Taiwan Focusing on these regions the analysis contrasts and compares these distinct communities to each other and to the ways in which they mediate culture as a national institution It draws on a wide range of critical cultural and media studies and explores how varied genres Renditions ,1989 Chinese Literature ,2000 Choice ,1994
