and additional resources So You Want to Direct TV? Jacob Pinger,2020-06-26 Becoming a TV director is nothing like other professions There is no road map Traditionally the only way to break in was through access to a powerful mentor to show you the way but today creative people with a drive to direct are finding their own ways into the industry In this book of interviews working TV directors show you exactly how they did it No two stories are exactly alike These deeply personal interviews with a racially and culturally diverse range of eight women and eight men are candid and full of practical insights For the first time in the 100 plus year history of the entertainment industry there are increasing opportunities to rise into the director s chair This book reflects the hope and promise of a new era Open the cover and discover the mentor you deserve

So You Want to Be a Scriptwriter and Make a Million Dollars Irving Elman,2000 This book was written to fill a need when I started teaching script writing at Santa Monica College and my students asked me to name a book on the subject I could recommend After voluminous reading I could find nothing which was completely satisfactory Most of it seemed to have been written by people who had never written professionally for films and or television and thus had no first hand knowledge of it from personal experience The books were written from hearsay and observation like trying to learn how to swim by standing at the edge of a pool and watching others do it without ever getting into the water yourself Or trying to fly by flapping your arms like a bird It doesn t work They have no hands on or wings on concept of how commercially produceable scripts are actually put together and then marketed and are of no real practical help to the beginning writer or anyone else who s interested Only a swimmer or a bird or a writer who has made his living at it really knows how his special trick is done and can pass it on to others And so here it is Enjoy while you learn Because if writing isn t fun it s no way to make a living Rob banks instead but try not to get caught So You Want to Be a Talent Agent? "Tom ""Wolf"" "
