Discipline Problems Tadashi Dozono,2024-05-07 Angel a Black tenth grader at a New York City public school self identifies as a nerd and likes to learn But she s troubled that her history classes leave out events like the genocide and dispossession of Indigenous people in the Americas presenting a sugar coated image of the United States that is at odds with her everyday experience The history I learned in school is simpler she says The world I live in is a lot more complex Angel like every student interviewed in Discipline Problems has been identified by teachers as a troublemaker a student whose behavior disrupts classroom norms and interferes with instruction But her critiques of the curriculum she s taught speak to her curiosity and insight crucial foundations for understanding history Like many students who have been marginalized by systemic racism in American schools she exposes the shortcomings of her classrooms academic environments by challenging both the content and the methods of her education All too often these challenges are framed as troublemaking and the students are disciplined for acting out instead of being rewarded for their intellectual engagement Tadashi Dozono a professor of education and former high school social studies teacher takes seriously the often overlooked critiques that students of color who get labeled as troublemakers direct toward their high school history curriculum He reinterprets troublemaking usually cast as a behavioral deficit as an intellectual asset and form of reasoning that challenges the disciplining reason of classrooms where whiteness is valued over the histories and knowledge of people of color Dozono shows how what are traditionally framed as discipline problems can be seen through a different lens as responses to educational practices that marginalize non white students Discipline Problems reveals how students of color seek out alternate avenues for understanding their world and imagines a pedagogy that champions the curiosity intellect and knowledge of marginalized learners      The Hills P.A. Nelson,2013-05-02 The Hills is a true story experienced and told to me over the years by my mother Beth This story about my mothers childhood began in Lepanto Arkansas and ended in Concrete Washington There was a lot of pathos happiness and learning about life that we dont see in our families today Mothers first seven years were spent in a little 2 bedroom house in Arkansas where she learned family values The second part of her journey in growing up was three weeks spent in a Model A crossing the United States in a move to improve the quality of their lives Upon arrival in Concrete Washington her family settled into a situation where they had a much nicer lifestyle for a time It is a true story of how families were making it in the Big Depression      The Year's Best Science Fiction: Fifteenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois,1998-05-15 Science fiction s premier editor assembles the best stories of the year from veterans and newcomers alike including Alan Brennert Gwyneth Jones James Patrick Kelly Nancy Kress Paul J McAuley Robert Silverberg and many others      The Harvard Advocate ,1919      The American Food Journal ,1924      You Can Become Anything You Want, They Said! Anandini Valluri,2014-08-29 You can Become Anything You want they Said is a strikingly inspiring tale that provides the reader with abundant joy balance and the power of understanding our deep inner voices It tells the extraordinary story of Vidhi Sharma a travel writer whose life was trapped between the expectations of the world and forcefully imitating the crowd Confusion is the beginning of thinking Restlessness is the search for answers to your confusion Frustration is the beginning of implementation of the rough plan that undergoes massive editing in the mind On a life changing decision that she decides to take at a point when the world declared her to be a failure makes this ordinary lost engineer to one of the most sought after speakers at the University of Auckland The story unveils the fact that Everything has an expiry date be it even taking wrong career choices and each of us has the genius within us that visits once in a while to tap our true self
