Shelford, 2023-10-05 Exploring the intersection of Enlightenment ideas and colonial realities amongst White male colonists in the eighteenth century French and British Caribbean A Caribbean Enlightenment recovers a neglected aspect of the region's history Physicians to planters merchants to publishing entrepreneurs were as inspired by ideologies of utility and improvement as their metropolitan counterparts and they adapted enlightened ideas and social practices to understand their place in the Atlantic World Colonists collected botanical specimens for visiting naturalists and books for their personal libraries They founded periodicals that created arenas for the discussion and debate of current problems They picked up the pen to complain about their relationship with the home country And they read to make sense of everything from parenting to personal salvation to their new societies and the enslaved Africans on whom their prosperity depended Ultimately becoming enlightened was a colonial identity that rejected metropolitan stereotypes of Caribbean degeneracy while validating the power to enslave on a cultural basis The Romantic Legacy of Paradise Lost Jonathon Shears, 2009 The Romantic Legacy of Paradise Lost offers a new critical insight into the relationship between Milton and the Romantic poets Shears devotes a chapter to each of the six major Romantics contextualizing their misreadings of Milton s Paradise Lost within a range of historical aesthetic and theoretical contexts Shears argues that the Romantic inclination towards fragmentation and a polysemous aesthetic leads to disrupted readings of Paradise Lost that obscure the theme or warp the grain of the poem Engaging Students in Socially Constructed Qualitative Research Pedagogies, 2022-05-20 This volume is an innovative practical contribution to the developing field of qualitative research pedagogy It is also applicable more broadly to the active teaching in higher education Based upon constructionist tenets this book contains three parts that offer strategies and approaches to actively engage students in qualitative inquiry Chapter authors with roots in six countries United States Lithuania Canada Israel China and Russia offer practical and creative strategies and theoretical foundations for engaging students in active learning of research The book will be of interest for instructors who wish to enhance their pedagogy and creativity in teaching and for students who will appreciate the inclusion of students assignments and authentic scenarios through which instructors support students in student learning and doing of qualitative research Dead Barry L. MacPhail, 2014-08-28 This study examines the satisfying thing we could ever do transmission and transformation of commonplace wisdom in Renaissance humanism by tracing a series of filiations between classical sayings anecdotes and exampes and Renaissance poems essays and fictions The circulation of commonplaces can be understood either as a process of reanimation and revitalization where frozen sayings thaw out and come to life or conversely as a process of immobilization and incrustation that petrifies tradition The paradigmatic figure for this process is the proverbial dance around the well which expresses both the danger and the compulsion of borrowed speech The United Presbyterian Magazine, 1882 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1904 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1905 The Ethical World ,1911 Proverbs John W.
