Supporting Postnatal Women into Motherhood Lynn Bertram, 2018-12-13 New mothers are often unprepared for the emotional impact of having a baby Feelings of isolation and anxiety which often emerge in the early months can trigger postnatal depression Health professionals can support women with therapeutic groupwork to help them overcome these feelings and adjust to the many changes which inevitably occur at this time This book describes setting up and managing a discussion group for new mothers to provide support and introduce women to others at the same life stage in a safe environment It shows how facilitating this structured activity can be positive and empowering for all concerned It is practical and stimulating reading for everyone involved professionally with postnatal women

Understanding Babies Ania Witkowska, 2021-02-25 The first three months of your baby s life sometimes called the fourth trimester is a transitional phase in which each of you is processing the birth experience you shared and acclimatising to a new way of being. It can be hard to interpret your new baby's behaviour: is she arching her back because she has tummy ache or does she simply enjoy a stretch? Does sucking his hands indicate hunger or something else? As you navigate these early days, your emotions might be all over the place and it can be hard to find and trust your instinctive need to connect with your baby. In Understanding Babies, experienced movement specialist Ania Witkowska looks at what your baby needs to thrive and how they show you they need it, revealing how you can tune in to your baby so that both of you can relax and enjoy your new life together. By explaining how your baby's development is supported through movement and interaction and guiding you through simple exercises and activities, she helps demystify the early days of parenting so that you can feel more joy and less anxiety as you and your baby flourish.

The Child Protection Handbook E-Book Rachael Clawson, Lisa Warwick, Rachel Fyson, 2024-01-03. The Child Protection Handbook explains how to recognise abuse and protect at risk children for those working with children and young people aged under 18, including in social care, education, health services and sport and leisure settings. The book has been fully updated to incorporate the impact of new technology as well as current legal and policy frameworks that govern statutory child protection intervention in the UK. It considers all aspects of child protection, including organisational issues, children's rights, the needs of those from diverse backgrounds and the impacts of the Covid 19 pandemic on child protection work. With accessible up to date information presented in an easy to navigate format, the Handbook is ideal for all busy practitioners wanting to improve outcomes for children, young people and their families. Fully updated since the last edition in 2007, it is perfect for all those working with children and young people. Easy to navigate and locate information, suitable as a reference book for busy practitioners. Illustrative boxes in each chapter drawing on practice case examples to highlight current issues and dilemmas. All concepts explained in straightforward jargon free language. Reflective points to encourage the reader to think about their own practice and apply new knowledge. Key questions for students and teachers to check understanding and to explore concepts further. Links to resources and further reading. Supporting social workers in child protection practice. Poverty and child protection. New forms of child abuse including technology assisted child sexual abuse, child sexual exploitation, gangs and criminal exploitation, radicalisation, forced marriage of children and young people, female genital mutilation and faith based abuse. Focus on teenagers including child protection in adolescence, leaving care, safeguarding and children in conflict with the law, children and young people who have displayed harmful sexual behaviour and child to parent violence and abuse. Safeguarding in sport and leisure. Working with parents at risk of repeat removal of their children through care proceedings.
