The Harvest Of Hate:

Summer, 1945 Thomas Goodrich, 2018-03-15 We Americans have the dangerous tendency in our international thinking to take a holier than thou attitude toward other nations We consider ourselves to be more noble and decent than other peoples and consequently in a better position to decide what is right and wrong in the world What kind of war do civilians suppose we fought anyway We shot prisoners in cold blood wiped out hospitals strafed lifeboats killed or mistreated enemy civilians finished off the enemy wounded tossed the dying into a hole with the dead and in the Pacific boiled the flesh off enemy skulls to make table ornaments for sweethearts or carved their bones into letter openers We mutilated the bodies of enemy dead cutting off their ears and kicking out their gold teeth for souvenirs and buried them with their testicles in their mouths We topped off our saturation bombing and burning of enemy civilians by dropping atomic bombs on two nearly defenseless cities thereby setting an all time record for instantaneous mass slaughter As victors we are privileged to try our defeated opponents for their crimes against humanity but we should be realistic enough to appreciate that if we were on trial for breaking international laws we should be found guilty on a dozen counts We fought a dishonorable war because morality had a low priority in battle The tougher the fighting the less room for decency and in Pacific contests we saw mankind reach the blackest depths of bestiality Edgar Jones WWII Veteran Harvest of Hate Richard Goynes, 1952 Harvest of Hate
